Any disruption in our relationship with one or more of these suppliers, or any failure by them to supply raw materials or traded components in accordance with our quality standards, commercial terms or delivery schedules, could adversely affect our procurement operations, manufacturing schedules, ability to fulfil customer orders and consequently our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Currently, we do not have long-term supply agreements or fixed pricing arrangements with our suppliers. Accordingly, we remain exposed to fluctuations in raw material prices, supply disruptions and procurement delays, which could materially affect our production schedules, cost structure and financial performance. We source our raw materials & other items from a limited number of third-party suppliers from various geographies. We do not have long-term contracts/agreements with our suppliers for such raw materials & Other items. Our dependence on foreign suppliers subjects us to certain risks and uncertainties which include geopolitical developments, supply chain disruptions, logistics constraints, economic or political instability, fluctuations in foreign exchange rates and freight costs. If we fail to (i) receive the quality of raw materials & other items that we require; (ii) negotiate appropriate financial terms; (iii) obtain adequate supply of raw materials & other items in a timely manner, or if our principal suppliers discontinue the supply of such raw materials & other items, or were to experience business disruptions or become insolvent, we cannot assure you that we will be able to find alternate sources for the procurement of raw materials. While our business depends on the timely procurement of various raw materials namely Steel, Carbide and Brazing filler, which are essential for the manufacturing of Pelletizing die plates, Pelletizing blades/ knives, Blade holders/cutter hub, Tapped driving bush, and other spare items & Other items namely Blades/ Knives, Driving Bush, Blade Holders, etc in a timely manner

Any inability to procure raw materials or traded components of the required quality, quantity or within the required timelines, or any discontinuation of supplies, business disruption or insolvency of our suppliers, may adversely affect our manufacturing operations, trading activities and ability to fulfil customer orders.

Although we have not experienced any material interruption in the supply of raw materials during the Relevant Period, there can be no assurance that such disruptions will not occur in the future. Any interruption in the supply of raw materials or traded components, or any delay in identifying alternate suppliers on commercially acceptable terms, may adversely affect our manufacturing operations, trading activities, ability to fulfil customer orders, profitability, cash flows and financial condition

2. A significant portion of our raw material requirement, particularly Carbide and Brazing Filler, is met through imports, and any adverse fluctuation in foreign exchange rates, import duties, or disruption in cross-border supply could materially affect our cost of production and profitability.

Our manufacturing operations are dependent on key raw materials, namely Steel, Carbide and Brazing Filler, which we source from both domestic and international suppliers. While Steel is sourced entirely from domestic suppliers, Carbide and Brazing Filler — both critical inputs to our manufacturing process — are sourced almost entirely from international suppliers, exposing us to risks inherent in cross-border procurement.

The details of our domestic and international raw material purchases for the periods indicated are as follows:

(₹ in lakhs)

Particulars	Period Ended on July 31, 2026		FY 25-26		FY 24-25		FY 23-24
	Domestic	International	Domestic	International	Domestic	International	Domestic	International
Steel	228.45	-	98.85	-	44.61	-	28.76	-
Carbide	-	116.97	-	164.27	-	78.96	-	49.11
Brazing Filler	-	0.88	-	0.22	-	6.03	-	4.02
Other	0.06	-	0.48	-	0.54	-	0.36	-
Sub-Total	228.51	117.85	99.33	164.49	45.15	84.99	29.12	53.13
Grand Total		346.36		263.82		130.14		82.25

Based on the above, our imported raw material purchases constituted approximately 34.03%, 62.35%, 65.30% and 64.59% of our total raw material purchases for the period ended on July 31, 2026 and for FY 2025-26, FY 2024-25 and FY 2023-24, respectively, with Carbide alone (imported in its entirety) accounting for a substantial and growing share of our raw material cost.

Our dependence on imports for these key inputs exposes us to several risks, including but not limited to: (i) adverse fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates, since our import purchases are typically denominated in foreign currency while our revenue is predominantly denominated in Indian Rupees; (ii) changes in customs duties, import tariffs, anti-dumping duties or other trade barriers imposed by the Government of India or exporting countries; (iii) geopolitical tensions, export restrictions, or regulatory changes in the countries from which we import; (iv) longer lead times, freight and logistics cost escalation, and port/customs-related delays; and (v) our limited ability to pass on such increased costs to our customers in a timely manner or at all, given pricing arrangements with our customers.

We do not currently engage in any hedging arrangements to mitigate foreign exchange risk on our import purchases. Any significant and sustained increase in the cost of imported Carbide or Brazing Filler, depreciation of the Indian Rupee against relevant foreign currencies, or disruption in the availability of these imported raw materials could adversely affect our cost of production, margins, and results of operations, and there can be no assurance that we will be able to identify and qualify alternate domestic or international sources of supply on commercially acceptable terms or in a timely manner.

3. Our Company is subject to export obligations under the EPCG Scheme. Any failure to fulfil such obligations may lead to financial liabilities.

Our Company has availed benefits under the Export Promotion Capital Goods (EPCG) Scheme, which provides duty concessions on capital goods imports subject to the fulfilment of specified export obligations within a prescribed time period. Failure to meet these obligations, either partially or fully, may result in payment of differential customs duty together with applicable interest and penalties. As on the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, our Company is required to fulfil export obligations aggregating to ₹1,309.62 lakhs within the prescribed period of six years.

The year-wise and block-wise export obligation details, including the obligation already fulfilled under Authorisation No. 3431003111 and the open obligation under Authorisation No. 3431006250.

The year-wise export obligation of the Company under the EPCG Scheme, aggregating to ₹1,309.62 Lakhs, as under:

(₹ in Lakhs)

Sr. No	EPCG Authorisation No. & Date	Duty saved	Total Export Obligation	Obligation period (from – to)	EO fulfilled till date	Current Status

2	No. 3431006250 dated March 26, 2025	218.27	1,309.62	26/03/2025 to 25/03/2031	Nil	Open. Under progressive implementation.
	Total	218.27	1,309.62

Any delay or inability to meet such obligations due to unforeseen circumstances, operational constraints, or external market factors may adversely affect our financial condition. While the Company is committed to fulfilling the export obligation, there can be no assurance that it will be met within the prescribed period. Additionally, changes in government policies, applicable laws, regulations or interpretations of the EPCG scheme may impact our ability to comply with the applicable conditions of the Scheme.

Any failure to fulfil the prescribed export obligations or comply with the conditions of the EPCG Scheme may result in withdrawal of benefits availed under the Scheme, recovery of applicable duties together with interest and penalties, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

For more details, refer chapter titled "Business Overview" on page no. 158.

4. We are exposed to foreign exchange fluctuation risks due to our significant export operations and procurement of certain raw materials and traded components from overseas markets, and we do not currently enter into any hedging arrangements or derivative contracts to manage such foreign currency exposure. Any adverse movement in foreign exchange rates could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Our Company manufactures precision-engineered wear components and spare parts used in underwater pelletizing systems, including pelletizing die plates, pelletizing blades/knives, blade holders/cutter hubs, tapped driving bushes and other spare components, which are supplied to customers across various international markets. During period ended on July 31, 2026 and Fiscal 2026, 2025 and 2024, revenue from operations outside India accounted for 84.34%, 84.73%, 82.43% and 80.38%, respectively, of our revenue from operations. Accordingly, our business is significantly dependent on export markets and cross-border commercial transactions.

Our export sales are primarily denominated in foreign currencies, including the Euro and U.S. Dollar and purchases of raw material and machineries in Euro, U.S. Dollar and Japanese Yen, whereas our financial statements are prepared and presented in Indian Rupees. Consequently, fluctuations in foreign exchange rates may directly affect the value of our export realizations upon conversion into Indian Rupees. Any significant appreciation of the Indian Rupee against such foreign currencies may reduce our revenue from operations, operating margins and profitability. In addition, volatility in foreign exchange rates may affect customer purchasing decisions, contract pricing and the competitiveness of our products in international markets.

Our Company currently does not enter into any hedging arrangements or derivative contracts, such as forward contracts, options or swaps, to manage or mitigate its foreign currency exposure. As a result, our substantial export revenues, constituting 84.73% of our total revenue from operations in Fiscal 2026 and 84.34% of our total revenue from operations for the period ended on July 31, 2026, remain entirely unmitigated and vulnerable to foreign exchange rate volatility. In the absence of any hedging mechanism, any adverse or sudden movement in exchange rates could have a direct and immediate impact on our revenue realisations, profit margins and cash flows, without any offsetting protection. There can be no assurance that we will enter into hedging arrangements in the future, or that any such arrangements, if entered into, will adequately protect us against foreign exchange risk.

Further, our export operations are exposed to geopolitical developments, changes in international trade policies, trade restrictions, economic sanctions, armed conflicts, changes in customs duties or tariffs, embargoes and disruptions in international logistics affecting the countries in which our customers are located. Any such developments may adversely affect demand for our products, delay shipments, increase freight, insurance and transportation costs or otherwise affect our ability to fulfil export orders in a timely and cost-effective manner.

Further, any economic slowdown, political instability, regulatory changes or adverse developments in our key export markets may reduce customer demand, delay customer procurement decisions or adversely affect our ability to maintain or expand our international business. We may also be required to revise our pricing strategies or absorb additional costs to remain competitive in overseas markets.

Although we undertake foreign currency transactions in the ordinary course of business and continuously monitor developments in our export markets, there can be no assurance that fluctuations in foreign exchange rates, geopolitical developments, international trade restrictions or disruptions affecting our export markets will not materially and adversely affect our revenue from operations, profitability, business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

5. Our business is working capital intensive and our working capital requirements have increased significantly over the last three Fiscals. Any inability to obtain or maintain adequate working capital on commercially acceptable terms, or any material variation between our estimated and actual working capital requirements, may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our business requires significant working capital, primarily to fund inventories of raw materials (alloy and stainless steel, tungsten carbide and brazing filler), work-in-progress and finished goods, and trade receivables arising from credit terms extended to our customers, a substantial majority of whom are located outside India and are typically extended credit periods of 60 to 90 days. Our net working capital and the principal components thereof for the last three Fiscals, as derived from our Restated Financial Statements, are set out below:

(₹ in lakhs)

Inventory holding period (days)*	5	15	47	71

Particulars	Fiscal 2024	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2026	Period ended on July 31, 2026
Trade payable holding period (days)*	49	66	67	116

Our net working capital increased from ₹68.94 lakhs in Fiscal 2024 to ₹596.54 lakhs in Fiscal 2026, and our inventory and trade receivable holding periods have lengthened from 5 days and 26 days in Fiscal 2024 to 47 days and 55 days respectively in Fiscal 2026, principally on account of the growth in our operations, the higher proportion of export sales, the relocation of our manufacturing facility to Waghodia GIDC in July 2025 and the consequent increase in safety stocks of imported raw materials and finished goods held to service international shipping lead times. During the three Fiscals, we have not defaulted in repayment of any borrowing, nor have we experienced any shortfall in working capital that resulted in a delay in servicing customer orders or supplier payments. However, we have experienced instances of delay in payment of certain statutory dues, as disclosed in Risk Factor No. 20.

Our working capital requirements are expected to increase further as we scale up production capacity, commence in-house manufacture of large-format die plates of up to 1.6 metres, maintain higher levels of finished goods inventory, establish warehousing and logistics capabilities, offer structured credit terms to select customers and expand our international presence, including in the United States, Canada and Mexico. Accordingly, we may require substantial additional working capital towards inventories and trade receivables. Any increase in receivables, delay in collections, increase in customer defaults, inability to maintain adequate cash flows from operations, or inability to secure additional financing or access other sources of funding on acceptable terms may adversely affect our liquidity and our ability to fund our operations and growth initiatives.

One of the Objects of the Issue is funding of our working capital requirements to the extent of ₹1,400.00 lakhs, of which ₹1,100.00 lakhs are proposed to be deployed in Fiscal 2027 and ₹300.00 lakhs in Fiscal 2028, based on management estimates and assumptions of holding periods for inventories, receivables and payables, which have been certified by Independent Chartered Accountant but have not been independently appraised by any bank or financial institution. For details, see "Objects of the Issue" on page 93. Our actual working capital requirements may vary from these estimates due to factors beyond our control, including delays in customer payments, changes in customer credit terms, fluctuations in raw material prices and lead times, foreign exchange movements, force majeure events and non-availability of funding from banks or financial institutions on acceptable terms or at all.

Accordingly, the estimated working capital requirements may not be indicative of our actual future requirements, and investors are advised not to place undue reliance on such estimates. If our working capital requirements exceed our estimates, we may be required to raise additional debt or equity, which may not be available on acceptable terms or at all, and which may result in additional interest cost or dilution to our shareholders, and could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

6. Our Company's applications for registration of its device marks are pending, including one application which is currently under opposition. Any delay or failure in obtaining registration may adversely affect our ability to protect our brand identity and enforce our intellectual property rights, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Our Company has applied for registration of two device marks, which are integral to our brand identity and business operations. As of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, one application in respect of the device mark comprising the "MAXWELL" word and logo has been opposed by a third party before the Trade Marks Registry, while another application in respect of a separate device mark is pending registration and is presently at the "Formalities Check Pass" stage. Until the registration process is completed, there can be no assurance that our applications will proceed to registration or that no further objections or oppositions will be raised.

Until the registration of our device marks is completed, we may not be entitled to the full statutory rights and remedies available to a registered proprietor under the Trade Marks Act, 1999 in respect of such device marks. Consequently, there is a risk that third parties may attempt to use identical or deceptively similar marks, which could lead to confusion among customers, dilution of our brand identity or erosion of the goodwill associated with our business. Although common law remedies, including passing-off actions, may be available under applicable law, enforcement of such rights may involve prolonged legal proceedings, increased costs and diversion of management time as compared to statutory infringement actions available to registered proprietors.

The details of trademark applications are mentioned below:

S. No	Brand Name/Logo Trademark	Class	Application number and Date	Owner	Authority	Current Status
1.	Application for registration of the following device mark: Device" MAXWELL" Maxwell®	7	5755130 Dated: January 07, 2023	M/s. Maxwell Engineering Solutions Private Limited	Trade Mark Registry, Government of India	Opposed
2.	Application for registration of the following device mark: Device "MAXWELL" 	7	7585740 Dated: March 10, 2026	M/s. Maxwell Engineering Solutions Limited	Trade Mark Registry, Government of India	Under Examination

The details of the opposition proceedings are as follows:

Opponent	Notice of opposition	Basis of opposition	Company's response
Shree Vallabh Metals (partnership firm)	May 26, 2025	Claims prior use since 2010 of "MAX FRESH/MAXFRESH" for mixers, grinders, juicers and allied goods. Alleges our mark is deceptively and phonetically similar and that registration would cause confusion and amount to passing off. Grounds: Sections 9(1)(a), 9(2)(a), 11(1)(a), 11(1)(b), 11(2)(a), 11(2)(b), 11(3)(a), 11(10) and 18(1) of the Trade Marks Act, 1999.	Counter-statement dated June 24, 2025
Shreeji Hydraulics & Equipment (partnership firm)	July 30, 2025	Claims prior use since 2015 of "MAXWELL" for hydraulic jacks and allied hydraulic products. Relies on its registered mark "MAXWELL" (No. 3876474, Class 7, stated to be valid up to July 3, 2028). Alleges our mark is identical or deceptively similar. Grounds: Sections 9, 11, 18, 19 and 29 of the Trade Marks Act, 1999.	Counter-statement dated August 20, 2025

The Company filed its counter-statement dated June 24, 2025 contesting the aforesaid opposition. The Company has, inter alia, contended that the competing marks, when considered as a whole, are visually, phonetically, structurally and conceptually distinguishable; that the Opponent cannot claim exclusivity over the expression "MAX" in isolation; that there is no likelihood of confusion or association; and that the Company's mark was independently and honestly adopted in good faith.

The second notice of opposition dated July 30, 2025 was filed by Shreeji Hydraulics & Equipment, a partnership firm. The Opponent has claimed prior use of the trademark "MAXWELL" since 2015 in relation to hydraulic jacks and allied hydraulic products, including hydraulic cylinders, direction control valves, hydraulic seals and tractor-trailer accessories. The Opponent has further relied upon its registered trademark "MAXWELL" bearing Application/Registration No. 3876474 under Class 7, stated to be valid up to July 3, 2028. The Opponent has principally alleged that the Company's mark is identical and/or deceptively and phonetically similar to its registered trademark and that registration and use thereof may cause confusion, deception or an association with the Opponent. The opposition has been raised, inter alia, under Sections 9, 11, 18, 19 and 29 of the Trade Marks Act, 1999.

The Company filed its counter-statement dated August 20, 2025 contesting the aforesaid opposition. The Company has, inter alia, contended that its device mark and its overall visual presentation are distinguishable from the Opponent's mark; that the respective goods, product segments and trade channels are different; that there is no likelihood of confusion or association among the relevant consumers; and that the Company adopted the mark independently, honestly and in good faith, without any intention to derive an unfair advantage from the Opponent's alleged reputation.

The opposition proceedings may involve legal costs, extended timelines and diversion of management time and resources. Further, there can be no assurance that the opposition proceedings will be decided in our favour or that the opposed application will ultimately proceed to registration. Any adverse decision may restrict our ability to obtain statutory protection in respect of the concerned device mark and may adversely affect our ability to protect and enforce our intellectual property rights.

Accordingly, any delay in, opposition to, or failure to obtain registration of our device marks may adversely affect our ability to protect and enforce our intellectual property rights, weaken our brand protection strategy and reputation, and materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

7. We are dependent on a few customers for a major part of our revenues. Further we do not enter into long-term arrangements with our customers and any failure to continue our existing arrangements or maintain our relationships with such customers could adversely affect our business and results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our sales are concentrated to a few customers with our top 10 customers aggregating to ₹ 958.49 Lakhs, ₹1934.93 Lakhs, ₹ 1613.87 Lakhs and ₹ 742.75 Lakhs contributing 80.71%, 65.71%, 73.03% and 70.45%, respectively, of our revenues during the period ended on July 31, 2026 and the Fiscal years 2026, 2025 and 2024 respectively. However, there is no direct/ indirect relationship between such entities and our Company, our Promoter, Directors and Promoter Group members other than disclosed in the chapter titled "Restated Financial Information" under "Note 31- Related Party Transactions" on page 242.

We presently do not have any long-term or exclusive arrangements with any of our customers. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that our customers will continue to procure products from us in volumes similar to those historically supplied. In the event our competitors' products offer better margins or other commercial advantages, there can be no assurance that our customers will continue to place orders with us. Most of our transactions with our customers are typically on a purchase order basis without any commitment for a fixed volume of business. There can also be no assurance that our customers will place their orders with us on current or similar terms, or at all. Further, our customers could change their business practices or seek to modify the terms that we have customarily followed with them, including in relation to their payment terms.

While we negotiate product prices and payment terms with our customers, in the event our customers alter their requirements, it could have a material adverse effect on our business growth and prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. In addition, our customers may also cancel purchase orders at short notice or without notice, which could adversely affect our inventory management. Frequent cancellations, deferment or modification of purchase orders may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Although we have established longstanding business relationships with certain key customers, there can be no assurance that such relationships will continue in the future. Further, if our customers experience any delays in placing orders with us, or procure products from our competitors, it could have a material adverse effect on our business growth and prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Our inability to maintain our existing customer network could have a negative impact on our sales, business growth prospects, result in slowdown of operation, financial conditions and cash flows. Further, the performance of our customers, their sales network and their ability to expand their businesses are crucial to the future growth of our business and directly affect our sales volume and profitability. Any reduction in demand from our key customers, deterioration in our customer relationships or loss of one or more significant customers could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

8. Our Promoter is engaged in a business through a Promoter Group entity that operates in a similar line of business as our Company. Any conflict of interest or competition arising from such business activities may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Our Promoter is involved in a venture Maxwell Dies & Moulds our Promoter Group, which is engaged in a business that is similar to the business carried on by our Company. Although our Company and the said Promoter Group entity presently operate independently, the existence of a business operating in a similar line of business may give rise to actual or perceived conflicts of interest in relation to business opportunities, customers, suppliers, employees, technology, pricing decisions or other commercial matters. Further, our Company has not entered into any non-compete agreement or other arrangement with the aforesaid Promoter Group entity restricting it from carrying on a similar business. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the said Promoter Group entity will not compete with our Company in the future or pursue business opportunities that may otherwise have been available to our Company. Any such competition may adversely affect our market position, customer relationships, business opportunities, profitability and future growth prospects.

Further, the interests of our Promoter in such competing business may not always be aligned with the interests of our Company or its shareholders. Any actual or perceived conflict of interest, diversion of business opportunities or allocation of management time and resources between our Company and such Promoter Group entity may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Our Company has undertaken related party transactions with Promoters and Promoter Group entities in the ordinary course of business and may continue to enter into such transactions in the future. Although such transactions are required to comply with the applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, there can be no assurance that such transactions will not involve actual or perceived conflicts of interest or that they will not adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

9. We are significantly dependent on steel as a key raw material, and any adverse fluctuation in the price or availability of steel could have a material adverse effect on our business, profit margins and results of operations.

Steel (Alloy & Stainless Steel) constitutes one of our major raw materials and forms a significant portion of our total raw material cost. Steel accounted for ₹228.45 lakhs (65.96%), ₹98.85 lakhs (37.47%), ₹44.61 lakhs (34.28%), and ₹28.76 lakhs (34.97%) of our total raw material purchases for the period ended on July 31, 2026 and for the Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

We procure steel from our approved vendors primarily located in the domestic market, based on purchase orders, and we do not have any long-term purchase agreements or firm price commitments with our steel suppliers. While our reliance on domestic sourcing reduces our exposure to certain risks associated with cross-border procurement, such as import duties, foreign exchange fluctuations and international logistics disruptions, we remain exposed to fluctuations in domestic steel prices on account of factors including changes in demand-supply dynamics in the domestic steel industry, input cost pressures faced by our suppliers (such as iron ore and coal prices), changes in government policies, duties or levies applicable to steel or its inputs, and general inflationary trends in the domestic market.

Any significant increase in the price of steel, or any disruption in its timely availability from our domestic suppliers, may increase our cost of production and adversely affect our profit margins, particularly if we are unable to pass on such increased costs to our customers in a timely manner or at all, owing to competitive pressures or the terms of our customer arrangements. Conversely, any sustained decline in steel prices could also affect the realisable value of our existing inventory.

Although we have not experienced any material disruption in the supply of steel during the Relevant Period, there can be no assurance that such disruptions or price volatility will not occur in the future, and any such event could adversely affect our manufacturing operations, cost structure, profitability, cash flows and financial condition."

10. We had previously filed a draft red herring prospectus with BSE Limited, which was subsequently withdrawn due to non-fulfilment of the applicable eligibility criteria. Any delay, deferral or withdrawal of the present Issue may adversely affect our reputation and result in additional costs and utilisation of management resources.

Our Company had previously filed a draft red herring prospectus dated September 30, 2025 with BSE Limited, through Religo Capital Advisors Private Limited (SEBI Reg. No. INM000013271), the book running lead manager engaged for the said filing, for listing of its Equity Shares on the SME Platform of BSE Limited. Subsequently, on December 3, 2025, our Company withdrew the aforesaid draft red herring prospectus since, at the relevant time, it did not satisfy the applicable eligibility requirement relating to a track record of three full financial years.

Our Company is presently proposing to undertake the Issue and list its Equity Shares on the NSE Emerge Platform, through JDA Capital Services Limited (Formerly Known as Beeline Broking Limited) having SEBI Reg. No. INM000012546, appointed as the Book Running Lead Manager to the present Issue. While our Company believes that it satisfies the eligibility criteria applicable to the present Issue, including the requirement relating to a track record of three full financial years, the assessment of our eligibility and compliance with applicable requirements is subject to the review of the Stock Exchange and other relevant regulatory authorities. There can be no assurance that such authorities will not raise observations, seek additional information or clarifications, impose further requirements, or take a different view regarding our eligibility or compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

Accordingly, the present Issue may be delayed, deferred or withdrawn due to regulatory observations, non-fulfilment of any applicable eligibility or procedural requirements, changes in applicable laws or regulations, adverse market conditions or other factors beyond our control. Any such delay, deferral or withdrawal may adversely affect our reputation and the confidence of prospective investors and may result in additional expenses and significant utilisation of the time and resources of our management. This could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects."

11. We may not be able to sustain our historical growth in revenue from operations and profitability.

Our profit after tax margins in the Fiscal 2024, Fiscal 2025 and Fiscal 2026 and for the period ended on July 31, 2026 was, 29.98%, 41.52%, 40.28% and 25.70% respectively and revenue from operations in the Fiscal 2024, Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2026 and for the period ended on July 31, 2026 was 1054.33 lakhs, 2209.98 lakhs, 2944.83 lakhs and1187.51 lakhs respectively. We have achieved CAGR of 67.15% between Fiscal 2024 to Fiscal 2026. Although we have not recorded any loses and our profit margins & Revenue from operations are growing on a YoY basis, we cannot ensure that our net profit margins & revenue from operations will continue to grow in the future with the same pace. We also plan to make further capital expenditures in our manufacturing facility which could further affect our profitability, for further details see Objects of the Issue. Any problems in implementing our expansion plans could affect our business operations and profit margins.

Further, there can be no assurance that our budgeted costs may be sufficient to meet our proposed capital expenditure requirements. If our actual capital expenditures significantly exceed our budgets, or even if our budgets were sufficient to cover these projects, we may not be able to achieve the intended economic benefits of these projects which include maintaining and improving our profit margins, which in turn may materially and adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, and prospects.

12. Our operations at our manufacturing facility could be adversely affected by strikes, work stoppages or increased wage demands, labour unrest or other disputes with our employees which could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows

India has stringent labour laws that protect the interests of workers, including laws governing detailed procedures for the establishment of unions, dispute resolution, and certain financial obligations on employers upon retrenchment. However, if our employees seek to unionise, it may become difficult for us to maintain flexible labour policies, which may increase our costs and adversely affect our business. Our employees are important for the efficient conduct of our manufacturing operations. Although we have not experienced any material labour unrest during the Relevant Period, we cannot assure you that we will not experience disruptions in work or our operations due to disputes or other problems with our work force, which may adversely affect our ability to continue our business operations.

Any labour unrest directed against us could directly or indirectly prevent or hinder our normal operating activities and if not resolved in a timely manner, could lead to disruptions in our operations Such events are very difficult for us to predict or control and any such event could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. A potential increase in the salary or wages of our employees as a result of renegotiation or unrest or a disruption in services by our employees due to potential strikes, could adversely affect our business operations and financial condition. Although we have not experienced any material labour unrest during the Relevant Period, there can be no assurance that such events will not occur in the future.

13. A substantial portion of our revenue from operations is derived from exports to international markets and any adverse developments affecting our operations in these markets could have an adverse impact on our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

A significant portion of our revenue for the period ended on July 31, 2026 and for last three years i.e. fiscal year 2026, 2025 & 2024 are 84.34%, 84.73%, 82.43% & 80.38%, respectively, is derived from exports to international markets, including USA, Germany, Netherland, Israel Saudi Arabia, Oman, Indonesia, Japan, Luxembourg, Vietnam, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, South Africa, Australia, Thailand, etc. Accordingly, our business is significantly exposed to risks associated with international trade, cross-border logistics and changes in global economic and geopolitical conditions.

As a result, our business is highly dependent on the economic, political, regulatory and trade conditions in these markets. Any adverse developments in these jurisdictions, such as changes in trade policies, tariffs, sanctions, currency fluctuations, economic slowdowns, geopolitical tensions or regulatory changes, could materially and adversely affect our business operations, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. Additionally, disruptions in logistics, supply chains, or market demand in such markets may impair our ability to fulfil orders or maintain customer relationships. Accordingly, any adverse developments in the international markets in which we operate may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

The Company's continued presence and growth in foreign markets are significantly dependent on its ability to maintain product quality and pricing that are competitive with international competitors and market leaders. International customers often benchmark products against global standards in terms of performance, durability, innovation, and cost-effectiveness. Any failure to meet these expectations due to rising input costs, supply chain disruptions, fluctuations in currency exchange rates, technological obsolescence, or quality inconsistencies may lead to a loss of customer confidence and reduction in market share.

Moreover, global competitors may benefit from economies of scale, advanced technologies, more efficient production systems, or favourable trade policies in their respective jurisdictions, enabling them to offer lower prices or superior quality products. If we are unable to maintain internationally competitive product quality, pricing or technological capabilities, invest heavily in R&D or operational upgrades or risk losing access to key international markets.

Any adverse developments in our export markets, including changes in trade policies, tariffs, sanctions, geopolitical tensions, logistics disruptions, foreign exchange fluctuations, increased competitive pressures or any inability to maintain internationally competitive quality and pricing standards, may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

17. Our Company does not have certain sanction letters in respect of motor loans availed from HDFC Bank, which may potentially expose us to disputes or compliance issues with the lender.

Our Company has availed certain motor loans from HDFC Bank in the past. However, the sanction letters in respect of some of these loans are not available with us.

The details of the loans of which sanction letters are not available are as below:

Sr. No.	Name of the Lender	Sanction date	Nature of borrowings	Purpose	Amount sanctioned (in ₹)
1	HDFC BANK LIMITED	30/05/2025	Loan Cum Hypothecation Agreement	Motor Vehicle	12,47,000
2	HDFC BANK LIMITED	30/05/2025	Loan Cum Hypothecation Agreement	Motor Vehicle	7,86,000
3	HDFC BANK LIMITED	30/05/2025	Loan Cum Hypothecation Agreement	Motor Vehicle	6,87,000
4	HDFC BANK LIMITED	16/03/2024	Loan Cum Hypothecation Agreement	Motor Vehicle	10,09,000
5	HDFC BANK LIMITED	16/03/2024	Loan Cum Hypothecation Agreement	Motor Vehicle	11,73,000
6	HDFC BANK LIMITED	16/03/2024	Loan Cum Hypothecation Agreement	Motor Vehicle	10,02,000
				Total	Rs. 59,04,000

Note: The total amount of Moter Vehicle loan of which the company don't have sanction letter is Rs. 59,04,000 which is 2.91% of total loan facility sanctioned to the company.

While the absence of sanction letters may limit our ability to evidence the initial terms and covenants as sanctioned by the bank, we do possess the corresponding loan agreements, which record the applicable terms and conditions of such borrowings. Accordingly, we are able to verify and demonstrate our obligations under these loans. Nevertheless, in the unlikely event of any variation between the sanction letters (not available with us) and the executed loan agreements, or if any terms were omitted from the agreements, it could potentially expose us to disputes or compliance issues with the lender, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition, or reputation. However, no such instances have been happened till the date of filing of red herring prospectus.

18. We depend on third-party job workers for carrying out certain manufacturing processes. Any disruption in the services provided by such job workers or failure by them to adhere to our quality standards, delivery schedules or applicable laws may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Our manufacturing process for pelletizing die plates, pelletizing blades/knives, blade holders/cutter hub, tapped driving bush and other spare items involves certain sub-processes such as machining, fabrication, welding, painting and other ancillary operations, which we outsource to third-party job workers. All raw materials used for such outsourced processes are supplied by our Company, and the completed components are subjected to quality inspection and testing by us before being incorporated into the finished products. The total job-work charges amounted to ₹60.50 lakhs in FY 2025-26 and ₹22.31 lakhs for the period ended on July 31,2026.

While we undertake the design, production planning, quality control, inspection and final dispatch of our products, we rely on such job workers for the timely completion of specific manufacturing processes that form an integral part of our production cycle. Accordingly, the timely execution of these outsourced activities is important for maintaining our production schedules and fulfilling customer orders.

Although we have entered into memoranda of understanding with certain job workers and have established long-standing business relationships with them, there can be no assurance that such arrangements will continue or that such job workers will continue to provide services on commercially acceptable terms or within the timelines required by us. Any delay, disruption, shortage of labour, capacity constraints, equipment breakdown, financial difficulties, operational inefficiencies or discontinuation of services by such job workers may delay our manufacturing process and adversely affect our ability to manufacture products and fulfil customer orders within the agreed timelines.

Further, the quality of the outsourced manufacturing processes directly affects the quality and performance of our finished products. Any failure by such job workers to adhere to our technical specifications, quality standards or manufacturing instructions may result in product defects, rejection of products, increased rework costs, warranty claims, customer complaints, delay in deliveries or loss of customer confidence. In addition, any non-compliance by such job workers with applicable labour, environmental, health and safety or other statutory requirements may expose us to operational disruptions, regulatory scrutiny or reputational risks.

Further, our manufacturing operations may also be adversely affected if we are unable to identify, engage or transition to alternate job workers within a reasonable period or on commercially acceptable terms. Since certain outsourced processes require specialised technical capabilities, the availability of suitable alternate job workers may be limited in certain circumstances. Any interruption in the availability of such job workers, increase in outsourcing costs or inability to effectively manage outsourced manufacturing processes may adversely affect our production schedules, operating margins, customer relationships, business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

19. The Objects of the Issue for which funds are being raised, are based on estimates and assumptions of our management, and have not been appraised by bank or financial institution or any independent agency. The deployment of funds raised through the Issue is subject to the discretion of our Board of Directors, based on the parameters as set out in the chapter titled "Objects of the Issue".

The fund requirement and deployment, as mentioned in the chapter titled "Objects of the Issue" on page 93 of this Red Herring Prospectus, is based on the estimates and assumptions made by our management and has not been appraised by any bank or financial institution or any other independent agency. These fund requirements are based on our current business plan. Our actual funding requirements may differ from the estimates disclosed in this Red Herring Prospectus due to changes in business conditions, market dynamics, regulatory requirements, project implementation schedules or other unforeseen circumstances. In view of the highly competitive and dynamic nature of our business, we may have to revise our business plan from time to time and consequently our proposed utilisation of the Net Proceeds.

The deployment of the Net Proceeds is subject to the discretion of our Board of Directors, within the framework of the Objects of the Issue and in accordance with applicable laws. Further, we cannot assure that the actual costs or schedule of implementation as stated under chapter Objects of the Issue will not vary from the estimated costs or schedule of implementation. Any such variance may be on account of one or more factors, some of which may be beyond our control. Any delay in the implementation of our proposed objects or any material variation in the estimated costs may adversely affect our business plans, anticipated benefits from the Issue, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Further, any inability to deploy the Net Proceeds in the manner or within the timelines currently envisaged, or to achieve the anticipated benefits from the proposed utilisation of the Net Proceeds, could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and future growth prospects.

20. There have been instances of delayed filings in the past with certain Regulatory Authorities. Further, our Company has received an ESIC notice in relation to an alleged statutory non-compliance. Any adverse action by the regulatory authorities in relation thereto may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

There have been instances of delayed statutory filings and compliances by our Company in the past with respect to the Employees' Provident Fund ("EPF"), Employees' State Insurance Corporation ("ESIC"), Tax Deducted at Source ("TDS"), Profession Tax ("PT") and certain other statutory compliances. In addition, our Company had not deducted provident fund contributions in respect of salary paid to our Promoter/Directors in the past. Such delays and non-compliances primarily occurred due to administrative and operational reasons.

Further, our Company has received a notice from the Employees' State Insurance Corporation ("ESIC") in relation to alleged non-compliance under the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948. While our Company has responded to the said notice, there can be no assurance regarding the outcome of the proceedings or that no adverse order, demand, interest, damages, penalty or other regulatory action will be initiated or passed against our Company. Any adverse outcome pursuant to the said notice may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled "Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments" beginning on page 258 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

Although, as on the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, there have been no penalties levied on our Company for such delays / defaults. However, it cannot be assured that even in future no such delay will happen or no such penalty will be levied. Therefore, if the regulatory authorities impose any monetary penalties on us or take certain punitive actions against our Company in relation to the same, our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected. We cannot assure you that such inaccuracies and delayed compliances will not happen in the future and that our Company will not be subject to any action by statutory or regulatory authorities, which may adversely affect our operating margins and consequentially, business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

The previous instances of delayed statutory compliances during the Relevant Period, as certified by M/s JAYAM & Associates LLP, Chartered Accountants (Firm Registration No. 130968W/W100605), Statutory and Peer Review Auditors of our Company, are set out below:

The table below sets forth the revenue generated from our domestic sales in Gujarat and other States for the periods indicated:

Due to the geographic concentration of the sale of our products in Gujarat, our operations are susceptible to regional developments, such as economic slowdowns, natural disasters, demographic changes, and other unforeseen events. Consequently, any significant social, political or economic disruption, or natural calamities or civil disruptions, or changes in policies of the state or local governments or the government of India or increased competitive pressures in this region, may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Although we have not experienced any material adverse impact arising from such geographic concentration during the Relevant Period, there can be no assurance that such events will not occur in the future. Any such adverse developments in Gujarat may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

22. Our research and development expenditure may not result in successful commercialization of the products under development, which may adversely affect our financial condition and future growth prospects.

We have incurred significant expenditure on research and development activities to develop new products and enhance our existing product portfolio. During period ended on July 31, 2026 and Fiscal 2026, we incurred research and development expenditure of ₹65.62 lakhs and ₹151.69 Lakhs respectively, which has been capitalized as an intangible asset under development. These expenditures have been incurred towards the development of various products, including oil-heated die plates, carbide-tipped die plates, large-format die plates, cutting blades and other technologically advanced products.

The successful commercialization of these products is subject to several factors beyond our control, including successful completion of product development, customer acceptance, changing market demand, technological advancements, competition from existing and new products, pricing pressures, compliance with applicable quality standards and regulatory requirements, and our ability to effectively market and distribute such products.

There can be no assurance that the products under development will achieve commercial success, generate sufficient customer demand or provide the anticipated returns on our investment. If we are unable to successfully commercialize these products or if market acceptance is lower than expected, we may not be able to recover the costs incurred on research and development. Further, we may be required to recognize impairment or write down the capitalized intangible assets under development, which could adversely affect our profitability, financial condition, cash flows and future business prospects.

23. Any delays in the schedule of implementation of our proposed objects could have an adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We propose to utilize our Net Proceeds for Financing the capital expenditure requirement towards Purchase of New Machineries, Lab Equipment & Other utilities for our Manufacturing Facility & Financing the capital expenditure requirement for construction of New Office Building and Manufacturing facility, for Repayment / prepayment, in full or part, of certain outstanding borrowings availed by our Company & Funding working capital requirements of our Company. For further information, see chapter titled "Objects of the Issue" on page 93. Further, the details of our proposed schedule of implementation and deployment of proceeds is as per "Objects of the Issue" on page 93. We are subject to risks associated with delays in the schedule of implementation of our proposed objects. These include risks on account of market conditions, delay in procuring and operationalizing assets or necessary licenses and approvals, competition, price fluctuations, interest rate fluctuations and other external factors. In the event we are unable to adhere to our proposed schedule of implementation of our objects, we may result in time and cost over-runs and our business, prospects and results of operations may be adversely affected.

24. Our manufacturing operations are dependent on the uninterrupted availability of electricity. Any disruption to our operations on account of interruption in power supply or any irregular or significant hike in power tariffs may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our manufacturing operations are highly dependent upon the continuous and uninterrupted supply of electricity for operating various machinery and equipment, including CNC machines, Vertical Machining Centres (VMC), Wire EDM machines, EDM machines, furnaces, milling machines, surface grinding machines, lathes and other production equipment installed at our manufacturing facility. Since the manufacturing of our precision-engineered products involves multiple sequential machining, any interruption or fluctuation in power supply may result in disruption of production, damage to work-in-progress, lower machine utilisation, delays in manufacturing schedules and increased operating costs.

Further, any prolonged interruption in electricity supply or failure to obtain adequate power from the local electricity distribution utility may adversely affect our ability to manufacture and deliver products within the timelines committed to our customers. Such disruptions may also result in production inefficiencies, delayed order execution, contractual delays, customer dissatisfaction and loss of business opportunities.

In addition, electricity constitutes an important component of our manufacturing costs. Any significant increase in electricity tariffs, fuel adjustment charges or other power-related costs may increase our operating expenses and adversely affect our profitability, particularly where such increased costs cannot be passed on to our customers. Further, any changes in government policies relating to industrial power tariffs or electricity supply may also adversely affect our manufacturing operations.

Accordingly, any interruption in power supply, shortage of electricity or substantial increase in electricity costs may materially and adversely affect our manufacturing operations, business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

For further details, please refer to the chapter titled "Business Overview" beginning on page 158 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

25. Our actual results could differ from the estimates and projections used to prepare our financial statements.

The estimates and projections are based on and reflect our current expectations, assumptions and/ or projections as well as our perception of historical trends and current conditions, as well as other factors that we believe are appropriate and reasonable under the circumstances. There can be no assurance that our expectations, estimates, assumptions and/or projections, including with respect to the future earnings and performance will prove to be correct or that any of our expectations, estimates or projections will be achieved.

26. We may be subject to industrial unrest and increased employee costs, which may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

As of July 31, 2026, our workforce comprised 73 permanent employees (Including Directors). Our employee benefits expense comprise payments made to all the personnel on our payroll and engaged in our operations.

The table below sets forth our employee benefits expense and total expenses Percentage of total income for the period and fiscal years indicated:

(₹ in Lakhs)

Particulars	Period Ended on July 31,2026		Fiscal 2026		Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024
	Amount	% of Total Income	Amount	% of Total Income	Amount	% of Total Income	Amount	% of Total Income
Employee Benefit Expenses	242.85	19.83%	521.71	16.96%	291.60	12.91%	223.46	20.57%
Total Expenses	868.29	70.09%	1636.03	53.19%	1153.54	51.06%	704.01	64.79%

Our processing operations are significantly dependent on the cooperation and continued support of our workforce, particularly our employees and personnel. Strikes or work stoppages by our workforce at our processing facilities could halt our production activities which could impact our ability to deliver customer orders in a timely manner or at all, which could adversely affect the results of our operations and reputation. We do not have any registered labour unions at our processing facilities and there have been no disruptions to our processing operations during the period ended on July 31, 2026 and Fiscal 2026, Fiscal 2025 and Fiscal 2024 on account of labour-related disputes including strikes, lockouts, or collective bargaining arrangements. However, there can be no assurance that we will not experience work disruptions in the future due to disputes or other problems with our workforce. Any such event, at our current facilities or at any new facilities that we may commission in the future, may adversely affect our ability to operate our business and serve our customers, and impair our relationships with certain key customers, which may adversely impact our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

27. In addition to normal remuneration, other benefits and reimbursement of expenses to our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Managerial Personnel; they are interested to the extent of their shareholding, if any and dividend entitlement thereon in our Company, if any and for the transactions entered into between our company and themselves as well as between our company and promoter group entity or any other entity. Our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Managerial Personnel are interested in our Company to the extent of their shareholding, if any and dividend entitlement thereon in our Company, if any, in addition to normal remuneration or benefits and reimbursement of expenses. 28. We have not entered into any agreement for transportation of our products.

Our Company has not entered into any formal or long-term agreements with transportation or logistics service providers for the delivery of our products. Although we currently have an informal arrangement with a transportation provider who facilitates the movement of our goods from our manufacturing facility to our clients particularly for international orders, this arrangement is not contractually binding.

Given that a significant portion of our business is focused on the international market, the absence of formal transportation contracts exposes us to potential logistical disruptions. In the event of any dispute, service interruption, or non-performance by our current transportation provider, we may face difficulties in ensuring timely delivery of our products to customers. This could lead to order delays, increased logistical costs, loss of customer trust, and a negative impact on our revenue and reputation.

The lack of formal agreements with logistics partners poses an operational risk, and our ability to secure reliable transportation on short notice in such scenarios may be limited. However, no such instances have been happened till the date of filing of Red Herring Prospectus.

29. Our Company has availed various credit facilities from HDFC Bank. Any default under such financing arrangements or failure to comply with the terms and conditions thereof may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows

Our Company has availed various credit facilities from HDFC Bank, including term loans, working capital term loans, business loans, cash credit facilities and bank guarantee/letter of credit facilities, to meet its working capital requirements, capital expenditure requirements and other business requirements. The continued availability of these facilities is important for the conduct of our business operations and implementation of our growth plans.

The agreements governing these credit facilities contain various terms, conditions, representations, warranties and covenants that are required to be complied with by our Company. Any failure to comply with such obligations, or any default in repayment of principal, interest or other amounts payable under such facilities, may entitle the lender to suspend or cancel the unutilised limits, recall the outstanding borrowings, enforce the security created in its favour or initiate other recovery proceedings in accordance with the applicable financing documents and laws.

Further, there can be no assurance that such credit facilities will continue to be available on commercially acceptable terms or that additional financing, if required for our future business operations or expansion plans, will be available on acceptable terms or at all. Any reduction, withdrawal or non-renewal of our existing credit facilities or any inability to obtain additional financing may adversely affect our liquidity, working capital requirements, business operations, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

As on the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, our Company has not committed any material default in repayment or compliance with the terms and conditions of such credit facilities. However, there can be no assurance that we will continue to comply with all such obligations in the future or that any default or event of default will not occur. Any such event may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

30. The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoter may be lower than the Floor Price.

The average cost if acquisition of equity shares by our promoters are as below :-

Sr. No.	Name of Promoters	No of Equity shares held	Average cost of Acquisition*
1.	Rajkumar Chaudhary	46,86,488	-4.10
2.	Vinubhai Kanjibhai Chavda	48,85,487	-3.93
3.	Ria Rajkumar Chaudhary	1,00,500	Nil

The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters has been calculated by taking into account the amount paid by them, by way of fresh issuance or transfer, the Equity Shares less amount received by them for the sale of Equity Shares through transfer, if any and the net cost of acquisition has been divided by total number of shares held as on date of the Red Herring Prospectus.*

As certified by M/s Atit Shah & Associates, Independent Chartered Accountant (Peer Review no. - 017944) vide their certificate dated October 20, 2026.*

The Floor Price and the Issue Price (if determined above such average cost) may be substantially higher than the average cost of acquisition of the Equity Shares held by our Promoters. Investors should not consider the average cost of acquisition by our Promoters as indicative of the price at which the Equity Shares should be valued or subscribed in the Issue. The Issue Price will be determined in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations and may bear no correlation to the average cost of acquisition of the Equity Shares by our Promoters.

31. Within the parameters as mentioned in the chapter titled "Objects of the Issue" of this red herring prospectus, our Company's management will have flexibility in applying the proceeds of this Issue. We are yet to place orders for Purchase of New Machineries, Lab Equipment & Other utilities for our Manufacturing Facility & Construction of New Office Building and Manufacturing facility;

We intend to use substantial portion of the Net Issue Proceeds towards Financing the capital expenditure requirement towards Purchase of New Machineries, Lab Equipment & Other Utilities for our Manufacturing Facility & Financing the capital expenditure requirement for construction of New Office Building and Manufacturing facility, etc. We're yet to place orders for the mentioned object. We intend to deploy the Net Issue Proceeds in financial year 2026-27 and 2027-28 and such deployment is based on certain assumptions and strategy which our Company believes to implement in future. We have taken quotations for purchase of the New Machineries, Lab Equipment & Other Utilities, construction of New Office Building and Manufacturing facility, etc. from vendors, however our plan remains subject to the potential problems and uncertainties including cost overruns or implementation delays. The funds raised from the Issue may remain idle on account of change in assumptions, market conditions, strategy of our Company, etc., For further details on the use of the Issue Proceeds, please refer chapter titled "Objects of the Issue" on page 93 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

32. We have not made any alternate arrangements for meeting our capital requirements for the Objects of the Issue. Further, we have not identified any alternate source of financing the 'Objects of the Issue'. Any shortfall in raising / meeting the same could adversely affect our growth plans, operations and financial performance.

As on date, we have not made any alternate arrangements for meeting our capital requirements for the Objects of the Issue. We meet our capital requirements through our bank finance, owned funds and internal accruals.

Any shortfall in our net owned funds, internal accruals and our inability to raise debt in future would result in us being unable to meet our capital requirements, which in turn will negatively affect our financial condition and results of operations. Further, we have not identified any alternate source of funding and hence any failure or delay on our part to raise money from this issue or any shortfall in the issue proceeds may delay the implementation schedule and could adversely affect our growth plans.

For further details, please refer to the chapter titled "Objects of the Issue" beginning on page 93 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

33. The Company's customers operate in various industry segments/verticals and fluctuations in the performance of the industries in which the customers operate may result in a loss of customers, a decrease in the volume of work undertake or the price at which the company offer its products.

The Company's business operations are exposed to fluctuations in the performance of the industries in which its significant customers operate. Customers may also decide to reduce spending on services due to a changing economic environment and other factors relating to the industry in which they operate. For instance, in the period of pandemic wherein all the industries are facing a slowdown and cash crunch due to the lockdown and other restrictions imposed by several State Governments, had resulted into a widespread impact on the industry. A loss of any significant customers, a decrease in the volume of work that the company's customers outsource or a decline in prices of the products offered by the company may materially and adversely affect its business, operations, financial condition and results of operations.

34. We have incurred significant capital expenditures in the past and there can be no assurance that our past or planned capital expenditures will result in growth and/or additional profitability for our Company.

We have already incurred significant capital expenditure in the past few years, including setting up an entire range of facilities such as Vertical Vacuum Furnace, Air cooled Scroll Water Chiller, Grinding Machine and VMC Machine, etc, for manufacturing of pelletizing die plates, pelletizing blades/knives, blade holders/cutter hub, tapped driving bush for underwater pelletizing systems and other spare items. For the Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, our capital expenditure was ₹2706.43 lakhs, ₹737.01 lakhs and ₹209.81 lakhs, respectively. The total estimated expenditure for Financing the capital expenditure requirement towards Purchase of New Machineries, Lab Equipment & Other Utilities for our Manufacturing Facility & Financing the capital expenditure requirement for construction of New Office Building and Manufacturing facility at Plot 939 & 940, Waghodia GIDC, Vaghodia, Vadodara-391760, Gujarat, India. For further details see chapter titled, "Objects of the Issue" on page 93.

To compete effectively, we must be able to develop and expand our product portfolio by initiating in-house manufacturing of 1.6-meter diameter die plates to meet our customers' demand, which requires a significant capital expenditure. Additionally, we have incurred certain capital expenditure for upgradation and modernization of our manufacturing facilities, infrastructure, machines, equipment and technology to allow us to offer a quality product, reduce operating costs and drive productivity and in the event of any negative impact of the business, such capital expenditure may result in negative cash flows. Our failure to manage our growth effectively may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. Further, expansion may require us to incur or assume new debt, expose us to future funding obligations or integration risks and we cannot assure you that such expansion will contribute to our profitability.

35. Information relating to the installed capacity, actual production and capacity utilization disclosed in this Red Herring Prospectus is based on estimates and assumptions and may not be indicative of our future production levels or capacity utilisation.

Information relating to the installed capacity, actual production and capacity utilisation of our manufacturing facilities included in this Red Herring Prospectus has been derived based on assumptions, estimates and technical parameters considered by our management and certified by Mr. Dinesh P. Jani, Government Registered Valuer (Category VII) (Registration No. F-108975-3) pursuant to his certificates dated June 30, 2025, April 02, 2026 and June 12, 2026. Such estimates have been prepared having regard to the installed machinery, technical specifications, production cycle, operating hours, product mix and other operational parameters considered appropriate for determining the installed capacity of our manufacturing facilities.

The installed capacity and actual production of our manufacturing facility may vary depending on several factors, including the product mix manufactured during a particular period, dimensions and specifications of products, degree of product customisation, machine availability, preventive maintenance schedules, availability of raw materials, workforce efficiency, operating hours, production planning and customer demand. Consequently, the actual production levels and capacity utilisation achieved during any financial period may differ from the estimated installed capacity disclosed in this Red Herring Prospectus.

Further, our Company has shifted its manufacturing operations from its erstwhile leased manufacturing facility to our new manufacturing facility situated at Plot Nos. 939 and 940, Waghodia GIDC, Vaghodia, Vadodara, Gujarat with effect from July 1, 2025. As commercial manufacturing operations at the new facility have commenced only recently, the historical installed capacity, actual production and capacity utilisation of our erstwhile manufacturing facility may not necessarily be indicative of the operating performance, production levels or capacity utilisation that may be achieved at our new manufacturing facility. In addition, our future production capacity may also vary as we optimise production processes, expand manufacturing operations, install additional machinery or modify our manufacturing practices from time to time.

Accordingly, investors should not place undue reliance on the historical installed capacity, actual production and capacity utilisation disclosed in this Red Herring Prospectus as an indicator of our future production levels, manufacturing efficiency or operating performance. Any inability to achieve the estimated production capacity or expected capacity utilisation at our manufacturing facility could adversely affect our ability to meet customer demand, optimise operating costs, improve manufacturing efficiencies and achieve our anticipated financial and operational performance.

36. The deployment of funds raised through this Issue shall not be subject to any Monitoring Agency and shall be purely dependent on the discretion of the management of our Company.

Since the Issue size is less than ₹5,000 lakhs, there is no mandatory requirement of appointing an Independent Monitoring Agency for overseeing the deployment of utilization of funds raised through this Issue. The deployment of funds raised through this Issue, is hence, at the discretion n of the management and the Board of Directors of our Company and will not be subject to monitoring by any independent agency.

Any inability on our part to effectively utilize the Issue proceeds could adversely affect our financials. Our Board of Directors along with the Audit Committee will monitor the utilization of Issue proceeds and shall have the flexibility in applying the proceeds of this Issue. However, the management of our Company shall not have the power to alter the objects of this Issue except with the approval of the Shareholders of the Company given by way of a special resolution in a general meeting, in the manner specified in Section 27 of the Companies Act, 2013. Additionally, the dissenting shareholders being those shareholders who have not agreed to the proposal to vary the objects of this Issue, our Promoter shall provide them with an opportunity to exit at such price, and in such manner and conditions as may be specified by the SEBI, in respect to the same.

37. If we fail to manage our growth efficiently and extend our presence into new markets, it could have a substantial negative effect on our business, future financial performance, and overall operational outcomes.

Our business success depends on our ability to effectively execute our business and growth strategy. As part of this strategy, we plan to expand our operations whenever opportunities arise, which includes enhancing our product portfolio with promising growth and profitability potential, pursuing cost efficiency, attracting and retaining skilled employees, and consistently maintaining high-quality standards.

As we continue to grow and enter new markets, we may encounter several challenges, including:

- Acquiring new customers
- Understanding customer requirements and preferences in these new markets
- Securing necessary approvals and certifications for our products in different jurisdictions
- Accurately assessing the resources needed
- Maintaining a consistent culture, values, and work environment
- Enhancing our internal administrative infrastructure, including financial, operational, communication, internal control, and other systems
- Recruiting, training, and retaining skilled management, technical, and marketing personnel
- Ensuring high levels of customer satisfaction
- Meeting performance and quality standards

38. Our Company operates in a niche segment of precision components for underwater pelletizing systems and has no exact product-profile listed duplicate. The listed companies included in the peer group represent only the broader capital goods, plastic extrusion machinery and precision tool manufacturing ecosystem in India, and investors should not place undue reliance on such peer comparison.

Our Company operates in a specialised segment involving the manufacturing, trading and servicing of precision-engineered components and spare parts used in underwater pelletizing systems. As on the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, there is no exact product-profile listed duplicate of our Company. Accordingly, on the basis of industrial classification, we have included Kabra Extrusion Technik Limited, Omnitech Engineering Limited and Sunita Tools Limited as listed peers in the chapter titled "Basis for Issue Price" beginning on page 125. These companies represent the broader capital goods, plastic extrusion machinery and precision tool manufacturing ecosystem in India.

These peers differ from our Company in product portfolio, scale of operations and customer profile. For Fiscal 2026, their total income was ₹451.00 crore, ₹511.30 crore and ₹47.31 crore respectively, as against our total income of ₹30.76 crore. Kabra Extrusion Technik Limited reported a loss per share of ₹(0.73), so its RoNW and P/E ratio are not meaningful. The P/E ratios of Omnitech Engineering Limited (85.80) and Sunita Tools Limited (104.70) reflect prevailing market prices of their listed shares and may not be indicative of the price at which our Equity Shares may trade. Per-share data such as EPS and NAV is also not directly comparable, since the face value is ₹5 for Kabra Extrusion Technik Limited and Omnitech Engineering Limited and ₹10 for Sunita Tools Limited and our Company.

The information relating to peers has been derived from publicly available sources, and neither we nor the Book Running Lead Manager have independently verified it. Accordingly, investors may not be able to benchmark our financial performance, operating metrics, valuation multiples, growth prospects or market position against these companies while evaluating an investment in our Equity Shares, and should not place undue reliance on peer comparison while making an investment decision.

39. We have incurred borrowings from commercial banks and financial institutions and our inability to comply with repayment and other covenants in our financing agreements could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

We have entered into agreements with banks for short-term and long-term borrowings. These borrowings include secured fund based and non-fund based facilities and unsecured loan from bank. As of July 31, 2026 we had Total Borrowings (consisting of borrowings under non-current liabilities, current maturities of long-term debts and borrowings under current liabilities) of ₹ 1,539.34 Lakhs, which comprises of secured and unsecured loans from banks and financial institutions. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled "Financial Indebtedness" beginning on page 255 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

The financing documents governing these borrowings contain various affirmative and negative covenants, representations, warranties and other obligations, including restrictions on availing additional indebtedness, creation of further security interests, granting loans or advances, issuance of guarantees, disposal of assets and undertaking certain corporate actions without the prior consent of the lenders. In addition, we are required to comply with various financial and operational covenants, including maintenance of prescribed security cover, inventory margins, insurance over charged assets and other obligations stipulated under the financing documents.

Our borrowings are secured, inter alia, by hypothecation of certain movable assets, current assets and receivables of our Company and mortgage of certain immovable properties. Any failure to comply with the terms and conditions of our financing arrangements, including repayment obligations or financial covenants, may entitle the lenders to suspend or cancel the unutilised credit facilities, recall the outstanding borrowings, enforce the security created in their favour, accelerate repayment obligations or initiate recovery proceedings in accordance with the applicable financing documents and laws. Such defaults may also trigger cross-default provisions under our other financing arrangements, if applicable.

Further, our borrowing costs may increase due to fluctuations in applicable interest rates or changes in lending policies. Our ability to service and refinance our borrowings will depend on our ability to generate sufficient cash flows from our operations and to obtain financing on commercially acceptable terms. There can be no assurance that adequate funds will be available for repayment or refinancing of our borrowings as and when they become due. Any inability to comply with our financing arrangements or refinance our indebtedness may materially and adversely affect our liquidity, business operations, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

40. Insurance coverage of our Company may be insufficient to protect against certain operational risks, which could adversely affect our business results.

We maintain insurance coverage for risks associated with our manufacturing business through various policies. While we believe that our assets and stock are adequately insured, there can be no guarantee that our insurance will always be effective or sufficient. We cannot assure that any claims under our insurance policies will be fully, partially, or timely honoured to cover all material losses. To the extent that we incur losses or damages not covered by insurance or that exceed our insurance limits, our business and operational results could be adversely impacted. For further details regarding our insurance policies, please refer to the chapter titled "Business Overview" beginning on page 158 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

41. We do not have any Exclusivity Arrangements with the customers.

We do not have firm commitment long-term supply agreements with our customers and instead rely on purchase orders and forecasts to govern the volume and other terms of our sales of products. Many of the purchase orders we receive from our customers specify a price per unit and delivery schedule. Further, we do not typically have exclusivity arrangements with our customers. Consequently, there is no commitment on the part of the customers to continue to place new work orders with us and as a result, our sales from period to period may fluctuate significantly as a result of changes in our customers' vendor preferences and we may be unable to procure repeat orders from our customers.

Our growth depends on the growth of our key customers. If our key customers do not successfully enter into and retain market share in high-growth segments, we may be prevented from capitalizing on new growth opportunities. Since we are significantly dependent on certain key customers for a significant portion of our sales, the loss of any one of our key customers, a significant reduction in demand from such customers or the downturn in business by such customers could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. We may continue to remain dependent upon our key customers for a substantial portion of our revenues. In the event of our failure to retain one or more of our key customers, it will have an adverse effect on our financial performance and result of operations.

42. Our inability to accurately forecast demand or price for our products and manage our inventory may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our business depends on our estimate of the demand for our products from customers. We estimate demand for our products based on purchase order basis. We are currently operating on an order-to-order basis and do not maintain inventory of finished product as the products can be differ according to the customer requirement. As we have recently shifted to our new manufacturing facility and as we're scaling up, we have to maintain the inventory of our products as per demand. If our products do not achieve widespread acceptance or our customers, change their procurement preferences, we may be required to incur significant inventory markdowns or may not be able to sell the products at all, which would affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. As such, our inability to accurately forecast demand for our products and manage our inventory may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

43. We are required to obtain, renew or maintain certain statutory and regulatory permits and approvals required to operate our business and if we fail to do so in a timely manner or at all and our business, financial conditions, results of operations, and cash flows may be adversely affected.

Our Company's operations are regulated by a number of central, state, and local laws, which require us to obtain, hold, and periodically renew approvals, licenses, registrations, and permits from various government authorities. These approvals are essential for carrying out our manufacturing and related business activities and may be subject to conditions imposed by the respective authorities. In addition, certain licenses and registrations require updating or revalidation in view of the change in our Company's name and its conversion into a public company.

While we have obtained a significant number of approvals, licenses, registrations, and permits that are necessary for our business, there can be no assurance that such approvals will always be issued or renewed within the prescribed time periods, or that the terms of such approvals will remain unchanged. Any delay in obtaining or renewing approvals, or non-receipt of such approvals, could result in cost and time overruns, interruptions to operations, or restrictions on our ability to carry on certain activities.

The statutory and regulatory framework applicable to our industry is also evolving, and compliance requirements are becoming more stringent. Meeting such requirements may result in additional compliance costs and obligations. While we endeavour to comply with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements, any inability to do so may result in penalties, fines, or other regulatory actions.

Further, we cannot assure you that the approvals, licenses, registrations, and permits already granted to us will not be suspended, revoked, or cancelled in the event of any non-compliance, alleged non-compliance, or regulatory action. Any such suspension, revocation, or cancellation may disrupt our operations and could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

For further details regarding the material approvals, licenses, registrations, and permits, please refer to the chapter titled "Government and Other Statutory Approvals" on page 263 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

44. Our failure to perform in accordance with the standards prescribed in purchase order of our client could result in loss of business or payment of liquidated damages.

We receive purchase orders from our clients. Certain of these purchase order may require customization according to the requirement of the machines, which requires us to comply with the specifications prescribed by our clients, which may increase our operational costs. We may be unable to effectively address service constraints or accurately predict product requirements, as a result of which our clients may experience service shortfalls. Any disruptions to our businesses, including as a result of actions outside of our control, could significantly impact the continued performance of our obligations to meet the quality or performance standards set out by our clients which may in-turn harm and cause clients to withheld their order with us, impair our ability to obtain new purchase orders from existing clients and impair our ability to grow our client base, any of which could affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. In the event that we are unable to meet the prescribed obligations, we may also be required to again do the engineering work to ensure the quality and required specification provided by our clients, which indirectly increases our operational costs. However, no such instances have been happened till the date of filing of this red herring prospectus.

45. Any failure in our quality control processes may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. We may face product liability claims and legal proceedings if the quality of our product does not meet our customers' expectations.

Our company manufactures pelletizing die plates, pelletizing blades/knives, blade holders/cutter hub, tapped driving bush and other spare items. Our company relies on domestic as well as international suppliers for the procurement of raw material. There exists a substantial risk associated with the potential variation in the quality of raw material supplied to us. This could result in the production of sub-standard products that may not meet the specific requirements outlined by the customer. Factors such as varying impurities, and moisture content can influence the quality of the final product. Inadequate control over these variables may lead to instances where the manufactured our product falls short of the customer's expectations, potentially resulting in dissatisfaction, disputes, and potential financial losses for the company.

In the event the quality of our product is sub-standard, or our product suffer from defects and are returned by our customers due to quality complaints, we might be compelled to take back the substandard product. Such quality lapses could strain our longstanding relationship with our customers and our reputation and brand image may suffer, which in turn may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. Our customers may lose faith in the quality of our product and could in turn refuse to further deal in our product, which could have a severe impact on our revenue and business operations. We also face the risk of legal proceedings and product liability claims being brought against us by our customers for defective product sold. However, the company has not experienced any product liability losses for the stated period, we cannot assure you that we will not experience any material product liability losses in the future or that we will not incur significant costs to defend any such claims. A product liability claim may adversely affect our reputation and brand image, as well as entail significant costs.

46. Our success depends heavily upon our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel for their continuing services, strategic guidance and financial support. Our success depends heavily upon the continuing services of Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel who are the natural person in control of our Company.

Our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel have a vast experience in the business undertaken by our company. They have established cordial relations with various customers and suppliers over the past several years, which have immensely benefitted our Company's current customer and supplier relations. We believe, our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel, who have rich experience in this industry, managing customers and handling overall businesses, has enabled us to experience growth and profitability.

We benefit from our relationship with our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel and our success depends upon their continuing services. We also depend significantly on our Directors, Key Managerial Persons and Senior Management Personnel for executing our day-to-day activities. The loss of any of our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel, or failure to retain, recruit suitable or comparable replacements, could have an adverse effect on us. The loss of service of the Promoters and other senior management could seriously impair the ability to continue to manage and expand the business efficiently. If we are unable to retain qualified employees at a reasonable cost, we may be unable to execute our growth strategy. For further details of our Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel, please refer to the chapter titled "Our Management" on page 218 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

There may be changes in our management team or other key managerial personnel or senior managerial personnel to enhance the skills of our teams or as a result of attrition, from time to time. As of March 31, 2026, we had 72 (Seventy-Two) employees.

The table sets forth below attrition rate of our employees the last three financial year:

Particulars	For the period ended July 31, 2026	FY 2025-26	FY 2024-25	FY 2023-24
Number of Employees at the beginning (A)	72	59	37	7
Number of Employees at the end (B)*	73	72	59	37
Average Number of Employees in a particular financial year/ period (C= (A+B)/2)	72.5	66[#]	48	22
Number of Employees left (D)	1	8	12	9
Attrition Rate (D/C)	1.38%	12.21%	25.00%	40.91%

Including Directors*
[#] Rounded off

While we adhere to all employee statutory provident fund requirements and have undertaken initiatives (such as providing bonuses and incentives to our employees) to reduce attrition of our employees, the attrition rate for our employees is high. This is primarily due to the nature of our business which often involves entry-level positions with relatively low pay. This leads to a higher employee turnover as compared to other industries with a higher wage structure and a minimum professional qualification requirement for employees.

If we fail to identify, recruit and integrate strategic personnel, our business could be adversely affected. Any loss of members of our Senior Managerial Personnel or Key Managerial Personnel could significantly delay or prevent the achievement of our business objectives and could harm our business. We may need to invest significant amounts of cash and equity to attract and retain new employees, and we may never realize returns on these investments. If we are not able to retain and motivate our current personnel or effectively integrate and retain employees, our ability to achieve our strategic objectives, and our business and operations could be adversely affected.

47. Our Promoters will continue jointly to retain majority control over our Company after the Issue, which will allow them to determine the outcome of matters submitted to shareholders for approval.

Post this Issue, our Promoters will collectively own up to 70.61 % of our post issue equity share capital. As a result, our Promoters, together with the members of the Promoter Group, will continue to exercise a significant degree of influence over Company and will be able to control the outcome of any proposal that can be approved by a majority shareholder vote, including, the election of members to our Board, in accordance with the Companies Act, 2013 and our Articles of Association. Such a concentration of ownership may also have the effect of delaying, preventing or deterring a change in control of our Company.

In addition, our Promoters will continue to have the ability to cause us to take actions that are not in, or may conflict with, our interests or the interests of some or all of our creditors or other shareholders, and we cannot assure you that such actions will not have an adverse effect on our future financial performance or the price of our Equity Shares.

48. We could be harmed by employee misconduct or errors that are difficult to detect and any such incidences could adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations and reputation.

Employee misconduct or errors could expose us to business risks or losses, including regulatory sanctions and serious harm to our reputation. There can be no assurance that we will be able to detect or deter such misconduct. Moreover, the precautions we take to prevent and detect such activity may not be effective in all cases. Our employees may also commit errors that could subject us to claims and proceedings for alleged negligence, as well as regulatory actions on account of which our business, financial condition, results of operations and goodwill could be adversely affected.

49. Any future issuance of Equity Shares may dilute your shareholdings, and sale of the Equity Shares by our major shareholders may adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares.

Our growth is dependent on having a strong balance sheet to support our activities. In addition to the internally generated cash flow, we may need other sources of financing to meet our capital needs which may include entering into new debt facilities with lending institutions or raising additional equity in the capital markets. We may need to raise additional capital from time to time, depending on business conditions. The factors that would require us to raise additional capital could be business growth beyond what the current balance sheet can sustain; additional capital requirements imposed due to changes in regulatory regime or significant depletion in our existing capital base due to unusual operating losses. Any fresh issue of shares or convertible securities would dilute existing holders, and such issuance may not be done at terms and conditions, which are favourable to the then existing shareholders of our Company. If our Company decides to raise additional funds through the incurrence of debt, our interest obligations will increase, and we may be subject to additional covenants, which could further limit our ability to access cash flows from our operations. Such financings could cause our debt-to-equity ratio to increase or require us to create charges or lien on our assets in favour of lenders. We cannot assure you that we will be able to secure adequate financing in the future on acceptable terms, in time, or at all. Our failure to obtain sufficient financing could result in the delay or abandonment of our expansion plans. Our business and future results of operations may be affected if we are unable to implement our expansion strategy.

Any issuance of Equity Shares by our Company may dilute the shareholding of investors in our Company; and hence affect the trading price of our Company's Equity Shares and its ability to raise capital through an issue of its securities.
In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur could also affect the trading price of our Company's Equity Shares. Additionally, the disposal, pledge or encumbrance of Equity Shares by any of our Company's major shareholders, or the perception that such transactions may occur may affect the trading price of the Equity Shares. No assurance may be given that our Company will not issue Equity Shares or that such shareholders will not dispose of, pledge or encumber their Equity Shares in the future.

50. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend upon our future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements, capital expenditure and restrictive covenants in our financing arrangements.

We may retain all our future earnings, if any, for use in the operations and expansion of our business. As a result, we may not declare dividends in the foreseeable future. Any future determination as to the declaration and payment of dividends will be at the discretion of our Board of Directors and will depend on factors that our Board of Directors deem relevant, including among others, our results of operations financial condition, cash requirements, business prospects and any other financing arrangements.

Additionally, we may not be permitted to declare any dividends under the loan financing arrangement that our Company may enter into future, if there is a default under such loan agreements or unless our Company has paid all the dues to the lender up to the date on which the dividend is declared or paid or has made satisfactory provisions thereof. Accordingly, realization of a gain on shareholders investments may largely depend upon the appreciation of the price of our Equity Shares. There can be no assurance that our Equity Shares will appreciate in value.

51. The Issue Price, market capitalization to total revenue multiple and price to earnings ratio based on the Issue Price of our Company, may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares on listing or thereafter.

The Issue Price of the Equity Shares is proposed to be determined through a book-building process. The market price of the Equity Shares, market capitalization to total revenue multiple and price to earnings ratio based on the Issue Price may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to, among other factors, variations in our operating results, market conditions specific to the industry we operate in, developments relating to India, volatility in securities markets in jurisdictions other than India, variations in the growth rate of financial indicators, variations in revenue or earnings estimates by research publications, and changes in economic, legal and other regulatory factors. Consequently, the price of our Equity Shares may be volatile, and you may be unable to resell your Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price, or at all. There has been significant volatility in the Indian stock markets in the recent past, and our Equity Share price could fluctuate significantly because of market volatility. A decrease in the market price of our Equity Shares could cause investors to lose some or all of their investment.

52. Our inability to effectively implement our business and growth strategy may have an adverse effect on our operation and growth.

The success of our business will largely depend on our ability to effectively implement our business and growth strategy. In the past we have generally been successful in execution of our business but there can be no assurance that we will be able to execute our strategy on time and within the estimated budget in the future. If we are unable to implement our business and growth strategy, this may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

53. We cannot guarantee the accuracy or completeness of facts and other statistics with respect to India, the Indian economy and industry in which we operate contained in the Red Herring Prospectus.

While facts and other statistics in the Red Herring Prospectus relating to India, the Indian economy and the industry in which we operate has been based on various governmental and organizational web site data that we believe are reliable, we cannot guarantee the quality or reliability of such materials. While we have taken reasonable care in the reproduction of such information, industry facts and other statistics have not been prepared or independently verified by us or any of our respective affiliates or advisors and, therefore we make no representation as to their accuracy or completeness. These facts and other statistics include the facts and statistics included in the chapter titled "Industry Overview" beginning on page 138 of this Red Herring Prospectus. Due to possibly flawed or ineffective data collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced elsewhere and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, there is no assurance that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy, as the case may be, elsewhere.

54. We rely on the continued operations of our manufacturing facilities and any slowdown, shutdown or disruption in our manufacturing facilities may be caused by natural and other disasters causing unforeseen damages which may lead to disruptions in our business and operations could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

We utilize manufacturing facility located at Plot 939 & 940, Waghodia GIDC, Vaghodia, Vadodara-391760, Gujarat, India. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled "Business Overview" beginning on page 158 of this Red Herring Prospectus. This facility serves as a crucial for manufacturing of our products. We manage our products manufacturing within this manufacturing facility and fulfill customer orders by transporting products directly from these locations. While we diligently monitor and maintain oversight of capacity and utilization, any unforeseen disruptions or shutdowns at our manufacturing facility beyond our control could severely impact our supply chain and operational capabilities. Such disruptions may hinder our ability to fulfill the purchase order obligations promptly, potentially exposing us to loss our customers.

55. Majority of the Directors on our board do not possess experience of being on the board of a listed company.

Majority of the Directors of our Company do not have experience of holding a directorship in a listed company. Accordingly, they have limited exposure to management of affairs of the listed company which inter-alia entails several compliance requirements and scrutiny of affairs by shareholders, regulators and the public at large. As a listed company, the Company will require to adhere strict standards pertaining to accounting, corporate governance and reporting which is significantly higher than that of an unlisted company. The Company will need to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, including keeping adequate records of daily transactions. The Company will also be subject to the SEBI Listing Regulations, which will require it to file audited annual and unaudited quarterly/half-yearly reports with respect to its business and financial condition. If the Company experiences any delays, we may fail to satisfy its reporting obligations and/or it may not be able to readily determine and accordingly report any changes in its results of operations as promptly as other listed companies.

As a result, the Board of Directors of the Company may have to provide increased attention to such procedures and their attention may be diverted from our business operations, which may adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

56. Any material deviation in the utilisation of Proceeds of the Issue shall be subject to applicable law.

The funding requirements and the deployment of the proceeds from this Issue are based on the current business plan and strategy of our Company. Our Company may have to revise this from time to time as a result of variations including changes in estimates and other external factors, which may not be within the control of the management of our Company. This may entail rescheduling, revising or cancelling the planned expenditure and fund requirement and increasing or decreasing the deployment for a particular purpose from its planned expenditure at the discretion of the Board of Directors of our Company, in compliance with applicable law. Accordingly, we may not be able to utilise the proceeds from this Issue in the manner set out in this Red Herring Prospectus in a timely manner or at all. As a consequence of any increased expenditure, the actual deployment of funds may be higher than estimated.

57. We have not independently verified certain data in this Red Herring Prospectus.

We have not independently verified data from the industry and related data contained in this Red Herring Prospectus as mentioned under chapter titled "Industry Overview" on page 138 and although we believe the sources mentioned in the chapter to be reliable, we cannot assure you that they are complete or reliable. Such data may also be produced on a different basis from comparable information compiled with regards to other countries. Therefore, discussions of matters relating to India, its economy or the industries in which we operate that is included herein are subject to the caveat that the statistical and other data upon which such discussions are based have not been verified by us and may be incomplete, inaccurate or unreliable. Due to incorrect or ineffective data collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced elsewhere and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, we cannot assure you that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy, as the case may be, elsewhere.

58. The Equity Shares have never been publicly traded and the Issue may not result in an active or liquid market for the Equity Shares. Further, the price of the Equity Shares may be volatile, and you may be unable to resell the Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price.

Prior to the Issue, there has been no public market for the Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the Indian Stock Exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Issue. Listing and quotation do not guarantee that a market for the Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, there will be liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares. The Issue Price of the Equity Shares may bear no relationship to the market price of the Equity Shares after the Issue.

The market price of the Equity Shares after the Issue can be volatile as a result of several factors beyond our Company's control, including volatility in the Indian and global securities markets, our results of operations, the performance of our competitors, developments in the Indian and global key precision engineering industry, changing perceptions in the market about investments in this sector in India, investor perceptions of our future performance, adverse media reports about us or our sector, changes in the estimates of our performance or recommendations by financial analysts, significant developments in India's economic liberalisation and deregulation policies, and significant developments in India's fiscal regulations. In addition, the Stock Exchanges may experience significant price and volume fluctuations, which may have a material adverse effect on the market price of the Equity Shares.
General or industry specific market conditions or stock performance or domestic or international macroeconomic and geopolitical factors unrelated to our performance may also affect the price of the Equity Shares. In particular, the stock market as a whole in the past has experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations that have affected the market price of many companies in ways that may have been unrelated to the companies' operating performances. For these reasons, investors should not rely on recent trends to predict future share prices, results of operations or cash flow and financial condition.

59. The requirements of being a public listed company may strain our resources and impose additional requirements.

With the increased scrutiny of the affairs of a public listed company by shareholders, regulators and the public at large, we will incur significant legal, accounting, corporate governance and other expenses that we did not incur in the past. We will also be subject to the provisions of the listing agreements signed with the Stock Exchange. In order to meet our financial control and disclosure obligations, significant resources and management supervision will be required. As a result, management's attention may be diverted from other business concerns, which could have an adverse effect on our business and operations. There can be no assurance that we will be able to satisfy our reporting obligations and/or readily determine and report any changes to our results of operations in a timely manner as other listed companies. In addition, we will need to increase the strength of our management team and hire additional legal and accounting staff with appropriate public company experience and accounting knowledge and we cannot assure that we will be able to do so in a timely manner. Failure of our Company to meet the listing requirements of stock exchange could lead to imposition of huge penalties, if any including suspension of trading, imposed by Stock Exchange.

60. Our Company may be subject to pre-emptive surveillance measures like Additional Surveillance Measure (ASM) and Graded Surveillance Measures (GSM) by the Stock Exchanges in order to enhance market integrity and safeguard the interest of investors, once the Equity Shares of our Company are listed.

The Equity Shares of our Company may be subject to general market conditions which may include significant price and volume fluctuations, once the Equity Shares of our Company are listed. The price of the Equity Shares may fluctuate after the Issue due to several factors such as volatility in the Indian and global securities market, our performance and profitability, or any other political or economic factor. The occurrence of these factors may lead to the surveillance measures stipulated by SEBI and the Stock Exchanges for placing securities under the GSM or ASM framework being triggered in relation to the Equity Shares. If the Equity Shares are covered under such surveillance measures implemented by SEBI and the Stock Exchanges, we may be subject to certain additional restrictions in relation to trading of the Equity Shares such as limiting trading frequency (for example, trading either allowed once in a week or a month) or freezing of price on upper side of trading which may have an adverse effect on the market price of the Equity Shares or may in general cause disruptions in the development of an active trading market for the Equity Shares.

61. There are restrictions on daily movements in the price of the Equity Shares, which may adversely affect a shareholder's ability to sell, or the price at which it can sell, Equity Shares at a particular point in time

Following the Issue, we will be subject to a daily "Circuit Breaker" imposed by NSE, which does not allow transactions beyond specified increases or decreases in the price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index-based, market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI on Indian stock exchanges. The percentage limit on our circuit breakers will be set by the stock exchange based on the historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares.

EXTERNAL RISK FACTORS

62. The COVID-19 pandemic, or any future pandemic or widespread public health emergency, could materially and adversely impact our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

Since first being reported in December 2019, the outbreak of COVID-19 has spread globally. The World Health Organization declared the outbreak of COVID-19 to be a public health emergency of international concern on January 30, 2020, and a global pandemic on March 11, 2020.

The COVID-19 pandemic has had, and any future pandemic or widespread public health emergency could have, repercussions across regional and global economies and financial markets. The outbreak of COVID-19 in many countries, including India has significantly and adversely impacted economic activity and has contributed to significant volatility and negative pressure in financial markets, and it is possible that the outbreak of COVID-19 will cause a prolonged global economic crisis, recession or depression, despite monetary and fiscal interventions by governments and central banks globally.

The global impact of the outbreak has been rapidly evolving. As cases of COVID-19 have continued to be identified in additional countries, many jurisdictions, including the government of India, have reacted by instituting restrictive measures including invoking lock downs and quarantines, requiring the closure of non-essential businesses and placing restrictions on the types of businesses that may continue to operate, mandating restrictions on travel, implementing "shelter-in-place" rules and "stay-at-home" orders, and enforcing remote working regulations. No prediction can be made of when any of the restrictions currently in place will be relaxed or expire, or whether or when further restrictions will be announced. Although some governments are beginning to ease or lift these restrictions, the impacts from the severe disruptions caused by the effective shutdown of large segments of the global economy or localized lockdowns remain unknown.

On March 24, 2020, the Government of India ordered a national lockdown in response to the spread of COVID-19. Our business was determined to be operating in an essential industry, which allowed us to continue our operations after the introduction of the lockdown in India, subject to certain adjustments in working patterns.

There can be no assurance that there will not be any material impact on our operations if the outbreak of COVID-19 is not effectively controlled. Although some restrictions have been eased, it is not yet clear when the lockdown conditions will be fully lifted in India. Further, although we were declared an essential business and were able to adjust our business to continue operating during the lockdown, there can be no assurance that further restrictions will not be introduced or that we will continue to retain such essential status. Further, we may be required to quarantine employees that are suspected of being infected of COVID-19, as well as others that have come into contact with those employees or shut down our manufacturing facilities as a health measure, which could have an adverse effect on our business operations or result in a delay in the production and supply of products to our customers in a timely manner. If any of our suppliers are affected by COVID-19 to the extent our supply chain is disrupted, this may affect our ability to meet the demand of our customers.

The full extent to which the COVID-19 pandemic, or any future pandemic or widespread public health emergency impacts our business, operations and financial results will depend on numerous evolving factors that we may not be able to accurately predict, including the scope, severity, and duration of the pandemic; actions taken by governments, business and individuals in response to the pandemic; the effect on customer demand for and ability to pay for our products; the disruptions or restrictions on our employees' and suppliers' ability to work and travel; volatility in foreign exchange rates; any extended period of remote work arrangements; and strain on our or our customers' business continuity plans, and resultant operational risk.

The COVID-19 pandemic, or any future pandemic or widespread public health emergency could therefore materially and adversely impact our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

63. Financial instability in other countries may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets.

The Indian financial market and the Indian economy are influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries, particularly in emerging market in Asian countries. Financial turmoil in Asia, Europe, the United States and elsewhere in the world in recent years has affected the Indian economy. Although economic conditions are different in each country, investors' reactions to developments in one country can have an adverse effect on the securities of companies in other countries, including India. A loss in investor confidence in the financial systems of other emerging markets may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets and, indirectly, in the Indian economy in general. Any global financial instability, including further deterioration of credit conditions in the U.S. market, could also have a negative impact on the Indian economy. Financial disruptions may occur again and could harm our results of operations and financial condition. This includes, but is not limited to, the conditions in the United States, Europe and certain economies in Asia. Financial turmoil in Asia and elsewhere in the world in recent years has affected the Indian economy. Any worldwide financial instability may cause increased volatility in the Indian financial markets and, directly or indirectly, adversely affect the Indian economy and financial sector and its business. Although economic conditions vary across markets, loss of investor confidence in one emerging economy may cause increased volatility across other economies, including India. Financial instability in other parts of the world could have a global influence and thereby impact the Indian economy. Financial disruptions in the future could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations. The global credit and equity markets have in the past experienced substantial dislocations, liquidity disruptions and market corrections.

64. The price of our Equity Shares may be volatile, or an active trading market for our Equity Shares may not develop.

Prior to this Issue, there has been no public market for our Equity Shares. Our Company and the Book Running Lead Manager has appointed JDA Capital Services Limited (Formerly Known as Beeline Broking Limited) as Designated Market Maker for the equity shares of our Company. However, the trading price of our Equity Shares may fluctuate after this Issue due to a variety of factors, including our results of operations and the performance of our business, competitive conditions, general economic, political and social factors, the performance of the Indian and global economy and significant developments in India's fiscal regime, volatility in the Indian and global securities market, performance of our competitors, the Indian Capital Markets and Finance industry, changes in the estimates of our performance or recommendations by financial analysts and announcements by us or others regarding contracts, acquisitions, strategic partnership, joint ventures, or capital commitments.

65. You will not be able to sell immediately on Indian Stock Exchanges any of the Equity Shares you purchase in the Issue until the Issue receives appropriate trading permissions.

Investors subscribing to the Equity Shares in this Issue should note that they will not be able to sell or trade such shares immediately upon allotment, as trading on the Indian stock exchanges can commence only after certain regulatory formalities are completed. Pursuant to Indian laws and regulations, including those laid out by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) and the stock exchanges, various post-issue procedures must be finalized before trading permissions are granted. These include the completion of allotment, credit of shares to investors' demat accounts, and obtaining listing and trading approvals from the designated stock exchange.

There can be no assurance that these procedural requirements will be completed within the anticipated timeline. Delays in the credit of Equity Shares to the respective dematerialized accounts due to administrative, technical, or compliance-related reasons may restrict investors from selling their shares within expected timeframes. Further, any unforeseen delay or denial of listing permission by the stock exchange could adversely affect investor liquidity and confidence.

As mandated under Section 40 of the Companies Act, 2013, if the stock exchange refuses to grant listing approval, we are obligated to refund all monies collected from investors. Although we are taking all reasonable steps to ensure timely completion of the postissue formalities and listing process, any delay or failure in receiving the requisite approvals may restrict the ability of investors to exit or trade their holdings, potentially affecting the value and liquidity of their investment.

66. Fluctuations in raw material prices driven by factors such as currency exchange rates, global market trends, taxes and regulations, shipping and logistics costs, and supplier reliability could significantly affect the Company's profit margins and overall operational performance.

The Company relies on the procurement of its core raw materials from both domestic and international suppliers, including but not limited to namely Steel, Carbide and Brazing filler, for its manufacturing operations. Fluctuations in the prices of these raw materials driven by factors such as changes in global market demand and supply, volatility in currency exchange rates, shifts in international trade policies, import duties and taxes, and variations in shipping and logistics costs may have a material adverse effect on the Company's cost structure. In addition, any disruption in the reliability or consistency of suppliers, geopolitical tensions, or regulatory changes in the exporting or importing countries could impact the timely availability and cost of these inputs. Such volatility and uncertainties in procurement may significantly affect the Company's profit margins, production planning, and overall operational performance.

67. There is no guarantee that the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Issue will be listed on the Emerge Platform of NSE Limited in a timely manner, or at all.

In accordance with Indian law and practice, permission for listing and trading of the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Issue will not be granted until after the Equity Shares have been issued and allotted. Approval for listing and trading will require all relevant documents authorizing the issuing of Equity Shares to be submitted. There could be a failure or delay in listing the Equity Shares on the Emerge Platform of NSE Limited. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval would restrict your ability to dispose of your Equity Shares.

68. There are restrictions on the overall capping of 90% on the Opening Price/Equilibrium Price discovered during Special Pre-Open session for Initial Public Offer (IPO) on the NSE Emerge Platform of the Exchange and also there are restrictions on daily movements in the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may adversely affect a shareholder's ability to sell Equity Shares or the price at which Equity Shares can be sold at a particular point in time.

Once listed, we would be subject to circuit breakers imposed by the stock exchange, which does not allow transactions beyond specified increases or decreases in the price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index-based market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI. The percentage limit on circuit breakers is said by the stock exchange based on the historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares. The stock exchange does not inform us of the percentage limit of the circuit breaker in effect from time to time, and may change it without our knowledge. This circuit breaker limits the upward and downward movements in the price of the Equity Shares. As a result of the circuit breaker, no assurance may be given regarding your ability to sell your Equity Shares or the price at which you may be able to sell your Equity Shares at any time

69. Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, including adverse application or interpretation of corporate and tax laws, may adversely affect our business, prospects and results of operations.

The regulatory and policy environment in which we operate is evolving and subject to change. Our business and financial performance could be adversely affected by unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new, laws, rules and regulations applicable to us and our business. In such instances, and including the instances mentioned below, our business, results of operations and prospects may be adversely impacted, to the extent that we are unable to suitably respond to and comply with any such changes in applicable law and policy. Any political instability in India, such as corruption, scandals and protests against certain economic reforms, which have occurred in the past, could slow the pace of liberalization and deregulation. The rate of economic liberalization could change, and specific laws and policies affecting foreign investment, currency exchange rates and other matters affecting investment in India could change as well.

Additionally, the Government of India has introduced (a) the Code on Wages, 2019; (b) the Code on Social Security, 2020; (c) the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020; and (d) the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 and the corresponding rules, which consolidate, subsume and replace numerous existing central labour legislations. The implementation of such laws could increase our employee and labour costs, thereby adversely impacting our results of operations, cash flows, business and financial performance.

The application of various Indian tax laws, rules and regulations to our business, currently or in the future, is subject to interpretation by the applicable taxation authorities. For instance, companies can voluntarily opt in favour of a concessional tax regime (subject to no other special benefits/exemptions being claimed), which reduces the rate of income tax payable to 22% subject to compliance with conditions prescribed, from the erstwhile 25% or 30% depending upon the total turnover or gross receipt in the relevant period. Any such future amendments may affect our other benefits such as exemption for income earned by way of dividend from investments in other domestic companies and units of mutual funds, exemption for interest received in respect of tax-free bonds, and long-term capital gains on equity shares if withdrawn by the statute in the future, and the same may no longer be available to us. Any adverse order passed by the appellate authorities/ tribunals/ courts would have an effect on our profitability.

Further, the GoI has announced the union budget for Fiscal 2024, pursuant to which the Finance Bill, 2023 ("Finance Bill"), has introduced various amendments. The Finance Bill has received assent from the President of India on March 31, 2023, and has been enacted as the Finance Act, 2023. We cannot predict whether any subsequent amendments made pursuant to the Finance Act, 2023 would have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Furthermore, changes in capital gains tax or tax on capital market transactions or the sale of shares could affect investor returns. As a result, any such changes or interpretations could have an adverse effect on our business and financial performance.

There can be no assurance that the GoI will not implement new regulations and policies requiring us to obtain approvals and licenses from the GoI or other regulatory bodies, or impose onerous requirements and conditions on our operations. Any such changes and the related uncertainties with respect to the applicability, interpretation and implementation of any amendment or change to governing laws, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent in the jurisdictions in which we operate may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future. It may also have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. In addition, we may have to incur expenditures to comply with the requirements of any new regulations, which could materially harm our results of operations or cash flows. Any unfavourable changes to the laws and regulations applicable to us could also subject us to additional liabilities.

We are unable to determine the impact of any changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of, new, laws, rules and regulations applicable to us and our business. If that was to occur it could result in us, our business, operations or group structure being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and/or may require us to apply for additional approvals. We may incur increased costs and other burdens relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require significant management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future.

70. Taxes and other levies imposed by the Government of India or other State Governments, as well as other financial policies and regulations, may have a material adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Taxes and other levies imposed by the Central or State Governments in India that impact our industry include customs duties, excise duties, sales tax, income tax and other taxes, duties or surcharges introduced on a permanent or temporary basis from time to time. There can be no assurance that these tax rates/slab will continue in the future. Further, with the Introduction of the Goods and Services Act, tax rates and its implication may have material impact on our products. Any changes in these tax rates/slabs could adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

71. Foreign investors are subject to foreign investment restrictions under Indian law that limits our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely impact the market price of the Equity Shares.

Under the foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfer of shares between non- residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain exceptions) if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares, which are sought to be transferred, is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or fall under any of the exceptions referred to above, then the prior approval of the RBI will be required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert the Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India will require a no objection/ tax clearance certificate from the income tax authority. There can be no assurance that any approval required from the RBI or any other government agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all.

72. Global economic, political and social conditions may harm our ability to do business, increase our costs and negatively affect our stock price.

Global economic and political factors that are beyond our control, influence forecasts and directly affect performance. These factors include interest rates, rates of economic growth, fiscal and monetary policies of governments, change in regulatory framework, inflation, deflation, foreign exchange fluctuations, consumer credit availability, consumer debt levels, unemployment trends, terrorist threats and activities, worldwide military and domestic disturbances and conflicts, and other matters that influence consumer confidence, spending and tourism.

73. Civil disturbances, extremities of weather, regional conflicts and other political instability may have adverse effects on our operations and financial performance.

Certain events that are beyond our control such as earthquake, fire, floods and similar natural calamities may cause interruption in the business undertaken by us. Our operations and financial results and the market price and liquidity of our equity shares may be affected by changes in Indian Government policy or taxation or social, ethnic, political, economic or other adverse developments in or affecting India.

74. Terrorist attacks, civil unrests and other acts of violence or war involving India or other countries could adversely affect the financial markets, our business, financial condition and the price of our Equity Shares.

Terrorist attacks, civil unrest, geopolitical tensions and acts of war—whether occurring within India or globally—pose significant risks to the overall economic environment and may adversely affect investor sentiment, capital markets and business continuity. India has experienced terrorist incidents and localized conflicts in the past, and any recurrence of such events, particularly in or around Gujarat where our sole manufacturing facility is located, may disrupt transportation, logistics, power supply or the availability of raw materials, thereby affecting our manufacturing schedules and our ability to fulfil customer orders in a timely manner.

As a substantial portion of our revenue is derived from export of precision-engineered wear components and spare parts to international markets, including the USA, Germany, Netherlands, Israel and Saudi Arabia, our business is particularly exposed to geopolitical developments, regional hostilities, trade restrictions, economic sanctions or military escalation in or affecting these markets. Any such events may disrupt cross-border trade, delay or restrict shipments, increase freight and insurance costs, or lead to cancellation of export orders, which could adversely affect our revenue from operations and results of operations.

Incidents of terrorism or war, whether in India or in our export markets, may also result in global financial market volatility, currency fluctuations, decline in stock prices, foreign investor outflows and heightened uncertainty in emerging market economies, including India. Past events such as terrorist attacks in India and elsewhere, including the United States, Indonesia, Madrid and London, illustrate how such acts of violence can materially impact capital markets, trade flows and economic activity. Any such event may also affect the market for Indian securities, including our Equity Shares, by reducing investor interest or delaying market participation.

While we seek to maintain operational resilience through our processes and relationships with our stakeholders such as suppliers and logistics partners, such events are inherently unpredictable, and any prolonged disruption could materially and adversely affect our manufacturing operations, export sales, business, financial condition results of operations and the trading price of our Equity Shares.

75. Significant differences exist between Indian GAAP and other accounting principles, such as US GAAP and IFRS, which may be material to investors assessments of Our Company's financial condition. Our failure to successfully adopt IFRS may have an adverse effect on the price of our Equity Shares. The proposed adoption of IFRS could result in our financial condition and results of operations appearing materially different than under Indian GAAP.

Our restated financial statements, including the financial statements provided in this Red Herring Prospectus, are prepared in accordance with Indian GAAP. We have not attempted to quantify the impact of IFRS or U.S. GAAP on the financial data included in this Red Herring Prospectus, nor do we provide a reconciliation of our financial statements to those of U.S. GAAP or IFRS. U.S. GAAP and IFRS differ in significant respects from Indian GAAP. For details, refer chapter titled "Certain Conventions; Presentation of Financial, Industry and Market Data" beginning on Page 16.

Accordingly, the degree to which the Indian GAAP financial statements included in this Red Herring Prospectus will provide meaningful information is entirely dependent on the reader's level of familiarity with Indian accounting practices. Any reliance by persons not familiar with Indian accounting practices on the financial disclosures presented in this Red Herring Prospectus should accordingly be limited. India has decided to adopt the "Convergence of its existing standards with IFRS" and not the "International Financial Reporting Standards" ("IFRS"), which was announced by the MCA, through the press note dated January 22, 2010. These "IFRS based / synchronized Accounting Standards" are referred to in India as IND (AS). Public companies in India, including our Company, may be required to prepare annual and interim financial statements under IND (AS). The MCA, through a press release dated February 25, 2011, announced that it will implement the converged accounting standards in a phased manner after various issues, including tax related issues, are resolved. Further, MCA Notification dated February 16, 2015, has provided an exemption to the Companies proposing to list their shares on the SME Exchange as per Chapter IX of the SEBI ICDR Regulations and hence the adoption of IND (AS) by a SME exchange listed Company is voluntary. Accordingly, we have made no attempt to quantify or identify the impact of the differences between Indian GAAP and IFRS or to quantify the impact of the difference between Indian GAAP and IFRS as applied to its financial statements.

There can be no assurance that the adoption of IND-AS will not affect our reported results of operations or financial condition. Any failure to successfully adopt IND-AS may have an adverse effect on the trading price of our Equity Shares. Currently, it is not possible to quantify whether our financial results will vary significantly due to the convergence to IND (AS), given that the accounting principles laid down in the IND (AS) are to be applied to transactions and balances carried in books of accounts as on the date of the applicability of the converged standards, i.e., IND (AS) and for future periods.

Moreover, if we volunteer for transition to IND (AS) reporting, the same may be hampered by increasing competition and increased costs for the relatively small number of IND (AS)-experienced accounting personnel available as more Indian companies begin to prepare IND (AS) financial statements. Any of these factors relating to the use of converged Indian Accounting Standards may adversely affect our financial condition.

76. QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid, and Individual Investors are not permitted to withdraw their Bids after Bid/ Issue Closing Date.

Pursuant to the SEBI ICDR Regulations, Qualified Institutional Buyers and Non-Institutional Investors are required to pay the Bid Amount on submission of the Bid and are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid. Similarly, Individual Investors can revise or withdraw their Bids at any time during the Bid/ Issue Period and until the Bid/ Issue Closing Date, but not thereafter. Therefore, Qualified Institutional Buyers and Non-Institutional Investors will not be able to withdraw or lower their Bids following adverse developments in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, results of operations or otherwise at any stage after the submission of their Bids.

77. Any of the Bidders are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid.

Pursuant to the SEBI ICDR Regulations, Any of the Bidders are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid. While we are required to complete Allotment, listing and commencement of trading pursuant to the Issue within three (3) Working Days from the Bid/ Offer Closing Date, events affecting the Bidders' decision to invest in our Equity Shares, including adverse changes in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition may arise between the date of submission of the Bid and Allotment, listing and commencement of trading. We may complete the Allotment, listing and commencement of trading of our Equity Shares even if such events occur and such events may limit the Bidders' ability to sell our Equity Shares Allotted pursuant to the Issue or may cause the trading price of our Equity Shares to decline on listing.

78. Any downgrading of India's sovereign rating by an independent agency may harm our ability to raise financing.

Any adverse revisions to India's credit ratings for domestic and international debt by international rating agencies may adversely impact our ability to raise additional financing, and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such additional financing may be available. This could have an adverse effect on our business and future financial performance, our ability to obtain financing for capital expenditures and the trading price of our Equity Shares.

79. A third-party could be prevented from acquiring control of us post this Issue, because of anti-takeover provisions under Indian Law.

As a listed Indian entity, there are provisions in Indian law that may delay, deter or prevent a future takeover or change in control of our Company. Under the SEBI SAST Regulations, an acquirer has been defined as any person who, directly or indirectly, acquires or agrees to acquire shares or voting rights or control over a company, whether individually or acting in concert with others. Although these provisions have been formulated to ensure that interests of investors/shareholders are protected, these provisions may also discourage a third party from attempting to take control of our Company subsequent to completion of the Issue. Consequently, even if a potential takeover of our Company would result in the purchase of the Equity Shares at a premium to their market price or would otherwise be beneficial to our shareholders, such a takeover may not be attempted or consummated because of SEBI SAST Regulations.

Illustration of the Book Building and Price Discovery Process: Bidders should note that this example is solely for illustrative purposes and is not specific to the Issue; it also excludes Bidding by Anchor Investors. Bidders can bid at any price within the Price Band. For instance, assume a Price Band of ₹20 to ₹ 24 per share, Issue size of 3,000 Equity Shares and receipt of five Bids from Bidders, details of which are shown in the table below. The illustrative book given below shows the demand for the Equity Shares of the Issuer at various prices and is collated from Bids received from various investors.

Bid Quantity	Bid Amount (₹)	Cumulative Quantity	Subscription
500	24	500	16.67%
1,000	23	1,500	50.00%
1,500	22	3,000	100.00%
2,000	21	5,000	166.67%
2,500	20	7,500	250.00%

The price discovery is a function of demand at various prices. The highest price at which the Issuer is able to Issue the desired number of Equity Shares is the price at which the book cuts off, i.e., ₹ 22.00 in the above example. The Company in consultation with the BRLM, may finalise the Issue Price at or below such Cut-Off Price, i.e., at or below ₹ 22.00. All Bids at or above this Issue Price and cut-off Bids are valid Bids and are considered for allocation in the respective categories.

- Improved precision and reliability: Capital expenditure on high-tech equipment will improve the consistency, quality, and reliability of products. For example, pelletizing die plates, etc require high precision, and upgrading equipment will help ensure higher quality and fewer defects, contributing to customer satisfaction.
- Customization and flexibility: Investment in new machineries provide customization and flexibility in manufacturing of products on the basis of customers demand which help in strengthening client relationships and market share.
- First-mover advantage: these machines give us first mover advantage in manufacturing 1.6-meter diameter pelletizing die plates in India.
- Increased revenue potential: Capital expenditure leading to innovation, manufacturing 1.6-meter diameter pelletizing die plates and market reach drive revenue growth, capitalizing on rising demand across key business segments.
- Enhanced Quality Control and Assurance: Laboratory equipment enables the Company to conduct in-house testing of raw materials, work-in-progress products, and finished goods, thereby ensuring compliance with prescribed quality standards and customer specifications. It will support product innovation, formulation improvements, process optimization, and development of new products in line with evolving market requirement.
- Avoid Disruption: To avoid any disruption to our power supply such as outages or interruptions can halt our production processes, leading to operational delays and increased costs.
- Power Cost Benefits: The Company proposes to incur an expenditure of approximately ₹112.07 lakhs towards the installation of rooftop solar systems under the head "Other Utilities – Solar & DG Set" forming part of the Objects of the Issue. The estimated expenditure comprises ₹85.71 lakhs and ₹26.36 lakhs, respectively, based on the quotations obtained from M/s. EWC Solar dated May 7, 2026.

  The proposed investment is expected to result in savings in electricity costs. The estimated financial savings and the corresponding payback period have been calculated based on the underlying assumptions and are set forth below.

Particulars	Amount/Value
Proposed installed capacity of rooftop solar (kW)	259.16 KWp
Estimated annual generation (Units/kWh)	In Gujarat, 1 KWp of installed solar capacity is estimated to generate about 1450 Kwh (units) of electricity per year Therefore, Expected Annual Generation = 259.16 KWp x 1,450 kWh per year = 3,75,782 units (kWh) per year
Average Per-Unit Grid Power Tariff presently paid (₹/kWh)	₹ 8 /kWh (inclusive of MGVCL base rate and applicable duties/surcharges)
Estimated annual saving in power cost (₹ in lakhs)	3,75,782 units x₹8.00/unit = ₹30.06 Lakhs per year

Estimated Payback / Recovery Period (Years)	Total Investment (₹112.07 Lakhs) / Annual Savings (₹30.06 Lakhs) = 3.73 Years

4. Funding working capital requirements of our Company; and

Our Company is a precision engineering company engaged in the business of manufacturing, trading and servicing of critical components for underwater pelletizing systems. Our company manufactures pelletizing die plates, pelletizing blades/knives, blade holders/cutter hub, tapped driving bush for underwater pelletizing systems and other spare items. To support our future growth and enhance our manufacturing capabilities, we commenced operations at our company-owned manufacturing facility situated at Plot Nos. 939 & 940, Waghodia GIDC, Vaghodia, Vadodara, Gujarat with effect from July 01, 2025 and have gradually transitioned manufacturing operations from our earlier leased facility situated at Makarpura, Vadodara. This expansion is expected to strengthen our production capabilities, improve operational efficiencies and progressively reduce our dependence on trading activities. We also undertake customized manufacturing based on customer specifications and offer our products on a white-label basis, enabling customers to market such products under their own brands while leveraging our manufacturing expertise. Our Company has entered into agreements with selected job workers to carry out specific processes related to its manufacturing operations. Under these arrangements, our Company supplies the required raw materials, while the job workers undertake operations such as machining, fabrication, welding, painting and other ancillary activities.

Our Company is certified with ISO 9001:2015 for Manufacturing and Supply of Die Plates/Heads, Pelletizing Blades/Knives, Blade Holders, Tapped Driving Bushes, which ensures that we maintain quality standards across all operations. Further strengthening our commitment to quality and sustainable manufacturing, our Company was awarded the ZED Bronze Certification under the MSME Sustainable (ZED) Certification Scheme on November 28, 2025.

Our Manufacturing facility are equipped with requisite machineries like VMC, CNC, Furnace Machine, Milling Machine, Wire cuts Machine, EDM Machine, Lathe Machine, Surface grinders Machine and other machines tools to manufacture precision engineering components and in-house testing system to keep a constant check on quality of our product. We have expanded globally, serving the customers spread over the countries like the USA, Germany, Netherland, Saudi Arabia, Oman, Indonesia, Japan, Luxembourg, Vietnam, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Australia, Thailand, etc.

Net working capital requirement of our company for the financial year ended March 31, 2026 on audited basis was ₹872.39 lakhs, as on March 31, 2025 was ₹991.97 and as on March 31, 2024 was ₹192.73 lakhs

The net working capital requirements is projected to be ₹4,461.50 Lakhs as on March 31, 2027 and ₹3,620.65 lakhs as on March 31, 2028. The company will meet the requirement to the extent of ₹1,400.00 lakhs from the net proceeds of the issue and balance from internal accruals at an appropriate time as per the requirement.

Rationale for raising Additional Working Capital

As part of our growth strategy, the Company is scaling up production capacity and introducing a new range of large-sized dies to address higher throughput requirements of industrial pelletizing lines. To support faster order fulfilment and better pricing terms with suppliers, we will commence maintaining finished goods inventory and establish a dedicated warehouse and logistics capability. Further, to grab larger contracts and improve market share, the Company intends to offer structured credit terms to select customers enabling better procurement rates and strengthening long-term relationships with strategic buyers. To support international expansion, we plan to set up a focused business development and marketing team for priority markets including the United States, Canada and Mexico, coupled with local warehousing to ensure timely deliveries and responsive after-sales support.

Our company has achieved a healthy track record of revenue growth and profitability, by the growth in our revenue from operations, from ₹ 1054.33 lakhs to ₹ 2944.83 lakhs in Financial Year 2023-24 to Financial Year 2025-26, respectively at a CAGR of 67.15%, while our EBITDA has grown from ₹ 425.11 lakhs to ₹ 1,518.97 lakhs in Financial Year 2023-24 to Financial Year 2025-26, respectively at a CAGR of 257.31%.

We fund our working capital requirements from internal accruals and banking and other finance facilities. Given the planned scale-up, introduction of big-sized dies, the holding of finished goods inventory and extension of credit to customers, our working capital needs are expected to increase in line with our growing purchase order and export initiatives. Key components of working capital will include inventories (raw material and finished goods), trade receivables arising from extended credit terms, advances to suppliers, margin deposits and day-to-day operational payments. Management expects to meet the incremental requirement through a mix of net proceeds from this Issue, internal accruals and bank financing, deployed prudently to support production scale-up, warehousing and international market development.

With the anticipated growth in revenue from operations, our working capital requirements are expected to increase accordingly. A portion of the Net Proceeds is proposed to be utilised towards meeting these incremental working capital requirements.

Justification for "Holding Period" levels

The incremental working capital requirement of our company is primarily driven by increase in the trade receivables and Inventories guided by the increase in the revenue from operations. Further, with the fund infusion from the net issue proceeds, we will also be in position to provide timely payment to our suppliers and get better terms and conditions resulting into reduction in trade payables.

The justifications for the holding levels mentioned in the table above are provided below:

Particulars	Details
Trade Receivables	Trade receivables are amount owed to the Company by customers. The Company had trade receivable days in the range of 26-55 days in the financial year 2023-24, 2024-25 and 2025-26. With the projected increase in revenue, trade receivables are expected to increase proportionately in line with higher sales volumes. However, the receivables collection period is assumed to remain unchanged, as the Company is expected to continue its existing credit policy and maintain its current collection efficiency. Accordingly, the increase in trade receivables is attributable solely to higher business volumes and does not reflect any extension of credit terms or deterioration in collection performance.
Inventories	Inventories of the Company mainly consists of Finished Goods, Work in Progress and Raw Materials & Packing Material. Key raw materials items include Steel, Carbide, Brazing Filler, etc. The Company had inventories days in the range of 5-47 days in the financial year 2023-24, 2024-25 and 2025-26. With the increased focus on scaling sales and shifting from a make-to-order approach to maintaining inventory for immediate delivery, the Company estimates its inventory holding period to increase to 55 days in FY 2026-27 and 58 days in FY 2027-28, as compared to historical levels. The higher inventory is primarily attributable to the scale-up of operations, growing purchase order, and the need to ensure timely execution of projects. As we operate across diverse territories and geographies, we plan to establish warehouses closer to customers to serve them more efficiently and competitively. Given that the products are specialized components used in pelletizing machines, timely delivery is critical, as delays in supply of pelletizing die plates, pelletizing blades, blade holders, and tapped driving bushes can disrupt client production. Accordingly, the strategy of stocking finished goods is expected to support customer confidence and strengthen the market positioning, albeit with higher inventory levels.

Particulars	Details
Trade Payables	Trade payables are amount to be paid to suppliers by company following purchase of materials and expenses. The Company had trade payables days in the range of 49-67 days in the financial year 2023-24, 2024-25 and 2025-26. 4. Non- GAAP Financial measures

Non-GAAP Financial measures are numerical measures of the Technical Guide on Disclosure and Reporting of KPIs issuer company's historical financial performance, financial position, or cash flows that:

i. Exclude amounts, or are subject to adjustments that have the effect of excluding amounts, that are included in the most directly comparable measures calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP in the financial statements of the issuer company; or

Include amounts or are subject to adjustments that have the effect of including amounts, that are excluded from the most directly comparable measures so calculated and presented. Such adjustment items should be based on the audited line items only, which are included in the financial statements. These Non-GAAP Financial measures are items which are not defined under Ind AS or AS, as applicable. Generally, if the issuer company takes a commonly understood or defined GAAP amount and removes or adds a component of that amount that is also presented in the financial statements, the resulting amount is considered a Non-GAAP Financial measure. As a simplified example, if the issuer company discloses net income less restructuring charges and loss on debt extinguishment (having determined all amounts in accordance with GAAP), the resulting performance amount, which may be labelled "Adjusted Net Income," is a Non-GAAP Financial measure.

SECTION VII – ABOUT THE COMPANY

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

The information in this section has been extracted from various websites and publicly available documents from various industry sources. The data may have been re-classified by us for the purpose of presentation. Neither we nor any other person connected with the Issue has independently verified the information provided in this section. Industry sources and publications, referred to in this section, generally state that the information contained therein has been obtained from sources generally believed to be reliable but their accuracy, completeness and underlying assumptions are not guaranteed and their reliability cannot be assured, and, accordingly, investment decisions should not be based on such information.

GLOBAL ECONOMIC OVERVIEW

After withstanding higher trade barriers and elevated uncertainty last year, global activity now faces a major test from the outbreak of war in the Middle East. Assuming that the conflict remains limited in duration and scope, global growth is projected to slow to 3.1 percent in 2026 and 3.2 percent in 2027. Global headline inflation is projected to rise modestly in 2026 before resuming its decline in 2027. Slowdown in growth and increase in inflation are expected to be particularly pronounced in emerging market and developing economies.

Downside risks dominate the outlook. A longer or broader conflict, worsening geopolitical fragmentation, a reassessment of expectations surrounding artificial-intelligence-driven productivity, or renewed trade tensions could significantly weaken growth and destabilize financial markets. Elevated public debt and eroding institutional credibility further heighten vulnerabilities. At the same time, activity could be lifted if productivity gains from AI materialize more rapidly or trade tensions ease on a sustained basis.

Fostering adaptability, maintaining credible policy frameworks, and reinforcing international cooperation are essential to navigating the current shock while preparing for future disruptions in an increasingly uncertain global environment. As Chapter 2 shows, scaling up of defense spending prompted by a rise in geopolitical tensions could boost economic activity in the short term but also bring about inflationary pressures, weaken fiscal and external sustainability, and risk crowding out social spending, which could in turn ignite discontent and social unrest. As Chapter 3 demonstrates, where conflict erupts, acute macroeconomic trade-offs and scarring follow and last well beyond the immediate wartime shock.

Under the reference forecast, global growth is projected to be 3.1 percent in 2026 and 3.2 percent in 2027, slower than its recent pace of about 3.4 percent in 2024–25, and to settle at about that rate in the medium term, slower than its historical (2000–19) average of 3.7 percent. The forecast for 2026 is revised downward by 0.2 percentage point and that for 2027 is unchanged, compared with those in the January 2026 WEO Update. Global headline inflation is expected to increase to 4.4 percent in 2026 and decline to 3.7 percent in 2027, marking upward revisions for both years

Absent the war, global growth would have been revised upward. Indeed, forecasts based on pre conflict assumptions would have shown a slight upward revision of 2026 growth relative to that forecasted in the January WEO Update, by 0.1 percentage point to 3.4 percent. Hence, the downward revision for 2026 largely reflects the disruptions from the conflict in the Middle East, partly offset by carryover from recent strong data and reduced tariff rates.

Crucially, there is a high degree of cross-country dispersion in the reference forecast. While the growth and inflation revisions seem relatively modest at the global level, the toll on the conflict region and more vulnerable economies elsewhere in particular, commodity-importing emerging market and developing economies with preexisting fragilities is much more pronounced. The downward revision to growth in emerging market and developing economies is 0.3 percentage point for 2026, relative to that in the January WEO Update, while the forecast is broadly unchanged for advanced economies.

Under an adverse scenario with larger and more persistent increases in energy prices, global growth would slow further to 2.5 percent in 2026, and inflation would reach 5.4 percent. Under a more severe scenario in which there is more damage to energy infrastructure in the conflict region, the impact would be even larger: Global growth would be cut to only about 2 percent in 2026, while headline inflation would be just above 6 percent by 2027. The impact on emerging market and developing economies would be almost twice that on advanced economies

Downside risks dominate, even after the realization of a risk event—namely, an escalation of geopolitical tensions—frequently underscored in previous WEO reports. Geopolitical tensions could worsen even more than they already have—turning the situation into the largest energy crisis in modern times—or domestic political strains could erupt. Political stress factors can get entangled with shifts in trade and other international policies. Independently of geopolitical developments, trade-related disputes could flare up. As the Commodity Special Feature highlights, the critical role of rare earth elements in global supply chains constitutes a particular point of friction. A reevaluation of profit expectations regarding artificial intelligence (AI) or lowered expectations of viable markups stemming from more intense competition—even if productivity gains are realized—could lead to a decline in investment and trigger an abrupt correction in financial markets. Larger fiscal deficits and increasing public debt, starting from a position where fiscal buffers are already eroded, could put pressure on long-term interest rates and, in turn, on broader financial conditions. An erosion of institutions, including central bank independence and monetary policy credibility, could raise inflation expectations—especially at a time when headline inflation is increasing because of a shock in salient prices. On the upside, activity could be further lifted by AI-related investment and eventually transform into sustainable growth if faster AI adoption translates into strong productivity gains and increased business dynamism. Activity could also be supported by renewed momentum for structural reforms and by a sustained easing in trade tensions.

Recent Developments: Continued Resilience and Rising Fragility

Before the war, the global economy was performing better than expected, laying the groundwork for upward revisions to forecasts. In aggregate, global growth in the fourth quarter of 2025 increased to 3.9 percent on an annualized basis. In China, sequential growth accelerated (per IMF staff seasonal adjustment) to 6.1 percent as strong exports offset weak domestic demand. An increase in fiscal spending fueled stronger activity in Germany, helping growth in the euro area, excluding Ireland, accelerate to 1.5 percent. Growth in the United States slowed to 0.5 percent, lower than expected in the January 2026 WEO Update, as the government shutdown temporarily led to a sharp contraction in public expenditure. Expansion in US technology-related spending remained strong in the fourth quarter, but its effect on GDP was offset by its high import share. Growth in Japan rebounded to 1.3 percent owing to stronger consumption and investment.

Global trade remained robust. Brisk expansion in technology-related exports offset slowing momentum in exports in other product categories (Figure 1.4). This benefited Asian economies in particular, as the main exporters of semiconductors and other equipment sought after by firms raced to invest in digital and AI-related technologies. The rewiring of global supply chains and trading relations continued (Figure 1.5). US imports from China dropped sharply; those from Canada also declined. These dips were offset by increases in imports from Taiwan Province of China, Vietnam, and, to a lesser extent, Mexico. On the other side of the equation, Chinese exports were reoriented from the United States to other Asian economies and, temporarily, to Europe. China's merchandise goods trade surplus hit a record $1.2 trillion (6 percent of GDP) in 2025.

Global inflation has been largely steady. This stability masks some divergence, however. In the United States, above-target inflation persists, with core inflation for personal consumption expenditure maintaining a high year-over-year rate of 3.1 percent in January 2026. To date, evidence indicates that the direct incidence of tariffs has largely fallen on US importers and consumers (Amiti and others 2026; Gimbel 2026; Gopinath and Neiman 2026). In contrast, inflation fell sharply in Japan in January 2026 to below the 2 percent target for the first time since the second quarter of 2022, with the decline largely reflecting the provisional gasoline tax abolition.

Note: "Effective statutory tariff rate" is a weighted average of announced statutory rates using pretariff (hence, presubstitution) import weights. Calculations include only tariffs that are in effect at the time noted on the x-axis; measures that are not specified and implemented are not included. WEO = World Economic Outlook.

Risk-off sentiment following the outbreak of the Middle East conflict has led to a moderate tightening of global financial conditions, but they remain accommodative from a historical point of view (see the April 2026 Global Financial Stability Report). Concerns about a resurgence of inflation have raised bond yields and driven equity prices down. Emerging markets— especially commodity importers and those with preexisting vulnerabilities—have been affected the most. The US dollar has strengthened somewhat, reaffirming its safe haven status. Even so, market volatility has been relatively subdued (Figure 1.6). At the same time, geopolitical tensions and other factors have contributed to sharp swings in the gold price (see the Commodity Special Feature).

Fiscal policy remains too loose in many of the largest advanced economies and emerging markets (see the April 2026 Fiscal Monitor). The Middle East conflict is putting additional pressure on public finances, both via the direct effects of the conflict and as governments seek ways to protect the most vulnerable from the fallout in commodity markets and may be tempted to offer broad-based fiscal packages, while higher financing costs and weaker activity weigh on revenues. Countries with preexisting fuel subsidies face different fiscal dynamics than those with liberalized energy pricing, while those with links to the Middle East region through remittances confront additional pressure on household incomes and external balances. Monetary policy was becoming more divergent as common global drivers of inflation became less prominent, until the conflict delivered a global negative supply shock.

Note: The uncertainty measures are news- and media-outlets-based indices that quantify media attention to global news related to overall uncertainty (WUI), economic policy uncertainty, and trade policy uncertainty. WUI is divided by 100.

Global Assumptions

The reference forecasts incorporate the impact of the war, based on the assumption that the conflict will last for a few more weeks and a recovery will then gradually take hold, such that the disruptions fade and production and exports from the region normalize by mid-2026. This timeline is broadly captured in the projections for global commodity prices—consistent with futures pricing as of March 10—and interest rates (Figure 1.7). Fiscal and trade policies as they currently stand are assumed to remain in place through the forecast horizon. Uncertainty—encompassing trade and other economic policies as well as geopolitical developments—is assumed to remain elevated through 2027.

- Commodity price projections: Prices for energy commodities are expected to rise by 19 percent in 2026, as opposed to the small decline projected in the October 2025 WEO. Oil prices are expected to increase by 21.4 percent on account of disruptions to production and transportation in the Middle East, corresponding to the average petroleum spot price index averaging $82 per barrel. Natural gas prices are expected to be affected more than oil prices because of the technical complexity of restarting production and the comparatively lower level of reserves to fall back on. Food prices are expected to increase as well, more than projected in October 2025, on account of higher energy and fertilizer prices, disrupted shipping routes, and increased transport costs. Base and precious metal prices are projected to maintain the gains experienced in 2025.

- Monetary policy projections: Differentiation of monetary policies in major jurisdictions is expected to continue. In the United States, the federal funds rate is projected to be reduced gradually, reaching its terminal rate of about 3.1 percent by the end of 2027. The policy rate in the euro area is expected to increase by 50 basis points over the course of 2026. In Japan, the policy rate is projected to gradually rise, at a slightly steeper clip than thought in October 2025, toward a neutral setting of about 1.5 percent.

- Fiscal policy projections: Fiscal policy in advanced economies, on average, is expected to be neutral in 2026 and tighten in the latter years of the forecast horizon, despite a widening of deficits in major jurisdictions. In the United States, the general government fiscal-balance-to-GDP ratio is expected to deteriorate by 0.7 percentage point in 2026 to 7½ percent, reflecting the impact of the One Big Beautiful Bill Act (OBBBA), partly offset by additional tariff revenues. The fiscal balance is projected to decline in the euro area, with Germany's deficit registering a widening of over 1 percentage point to 3.8 percent as infrastructure and defense spending ramp up. Japan is also projected to see its deficit widen by 1 percentage point of GDP in 2026, and its fiscal policy is expected to remain moderately expansionary through 2030. Under current policies, US public debt is projected to continue to climb, from 124 percent of GDP in 2025 to 142 percent in 2031. In the euro area, the debt-to-GDP ratio also rises, but by less, from 87 percent in 2025 to 90 percent in 2031. Fiscal policy in emerging market and developing economies, on average, is projected to gradually tighten over the forecast horizon. In China, the deficit is expected to widen by 0.3 percentage point in 2026, before starting to narrow in the medium term. Still, public debt in emerging market and developing economies is projected to rise further, reaching 86 percent of GDP in 2031, from 74 percent in 2025.

- Trade policy assumptions: IMF staff projections remain based on real-time current trade policy; that is, they assume that policies as they stood at the end of March are permanent. This is so, even in regard to measures framed as temporary or pending— meaning that US Section 122 tariffs are assumed to be extended or reimposed under different statutes. The US effective statutory tariff rate underlying the projections is 13.5 percent, compared with 18.7 percent in the October 2025 forecast. The corresponding effective tariff rate imposed by the rest of the world on imports from the United States is unchanged at 3.5 percent.

OVERVIEW OF INDIA ECONOMY

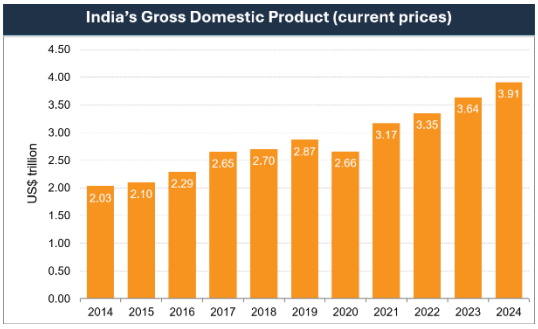

Introduction

India's economic momentum remains strong, underpinned by resilient domestic demand and sustained macroeconomic stability. In FY 2025–26, Real GDP (GDP at Constant Prices) is estimated to reach Rs. 201.90 lakh crore (US$ 2.24 trillion), rising from the provisional level of Rs. 187.97 lakh crore (US$ 2.26 trillion) in FY 2024–25, reflecting a robust growth of 7.4%. At current prices, Nominal GDP is projected to reach Rs. 357.14 lakh crore (US$ 3.96 trillion) in FY 2025–26, from Rs. 330.68 lakh crore (US$ 3.98 trillion) in the previous year, registering a growth of 8.0%. On the production side, Real Gross Value Added (GVA) is estimated at Rs. 184.50 lakh crore (US$ 2.04 trillion), up from Rs. 171.87 lakh crore (US$ 2.07 trillion) in FY 2024–25, indicating a growth of 7.3%, while Nominal GVA is expected to expand to Rs. 323.48 lakh crore (US$ 3.59 trillion) from Rs. 300.22 lakh crore (US$ 3.62 trillion), marking a growth of 7.7%. Collectively, these trends highlight India's position as one of the fastest-growing major economies, supported by broad-based expansion across sectors.

Further, India is projected to reach a GDP of Rs. 4,26,45,000 crore (US$ 5 trillion) by 2027 and is on course to surpass Germany by 2028. Rising employment and increasing private consumption, supported by rising consumer sentiment, will support GDP growth in the coming months.

Market Overview

India is home to 126 unicorns, with six new startups achieving unicorn status in 2025.

India's current account deficit moderated in Q2 FY 2025–26 (July–September), supported by a lower merchandise trade deficit. The deficit stood at Rs. 1.02 lakh crore (US$ 11.7 billion), or 1.3% of GDP, compared with Rs. 1.73 lakh crore (US$ 20.8 billion), or 2.2% of GDP, in the same quarter last year.

Source: World Bank

In the preceding quarter, the current account had recorded a relatively modest deficit of Rs. 0.20 lakh crore (US$ 2.33 billion), equivalent to 0.2% of GDP, indicating improved external sector resilience. According to Minister of Commerce and Industry, Consumer Affairs, Food and Public Distribution and Textiles Mr. Piyush Goyal, Indian exports are expected to reach US$ 1 trillion by 2030.

Recent Developments

India is primarily a domestic demand-driven economy, with consumption and investments contributing to 70% of the economic activity. With India's economy showing resilient growth, supported by strong domestic demand, policy reforms, and a healthy investment pipeline, several new projects and developments are underway across key sectors. According to World Bank, India must continue to prioritise lowering inequality while also putting growth-oriented policies into place to boost the economy. In view of this, there have been some developments that have taken place in the recent past. Some of them are mentioned below.

- On the FDI front, according to the Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade (DPIIT), India's cumulative FDI inflow stood at Rs. 99,08,749 crore (US$ 1.12 trillion) between April 2000-September 2025; with major share of FDI equity inflow, coming from Singapore at Rs. 13,21,127 crore (US$ 186.82 billion) with a total share of 24.45%, followed by Mauritius at Rs. 11,22,807 crore (US$ 183.66 billion) with 24.04%, the USA at Rs. 5,50,450 crore (US$ 77.27 billion) with 10.11%, the Netherlands at Rs. 3,77,094 crore (US$ 54.93 billion) with 7.19%, and Japan at Rs. 2,93,863 crore (US$ 45.61 billion) with 5.97%.
- As of January 9, 2026, India's foreign exchange reserves stood at Rs. 61,95,896 crore (US$ 687.19 billion).
- In November 2025, India recorded 113 Private Equity (PE)–Venture Capital (VC) deals valued at Rs. 46,500 crore (US$ 5.6 billion), marking a 31% year-on-year increase from Rs. 35,700 crore (US$ 4.3 billion) in November 2024. On a month-on-month basis, investment value rose by 4% compared to Rs. 44,800 crore (US$ 5.4 billion) in October 2025. Deal activity also strengthened, with the number of transactions increasing 12% year-on-year from 101 deals in November 2024 and 4% month-on-month from 109 deals in October 2025, reflecting sustained momentum in India's PE/VC investment landscape.

- During FY 2025–26 (up to January 27, 2026), Foreign Portfolio Investor (FPI) activity in India indicated a phase of portfolio optimisation and asset reallocation amid evolving global market conditions. While foreign investors moderated direct equity exposure, debt instruments continued to attract investments of over Rs. 2,100 crore (US$ 0.25 billion), supported by stable macroeconomic fundamentals and policy continuity. FPIs also channelled Rs. 17,025 crore (US$ 2.0 billion) into mutual fund schemes, reflecting a preference for diversified and professionally managed market exposure. Domestic Institutional Investors (DIIs) played a stabilising role in the equity cash market during FY 2025–26 (April–December 2025), recording net purchases of around Rs. 5.99 lakh crore (US$ 66.55 billion). Strong and consistent buying by mutual funds, insurance companies, and pension funds helped offset periods of foreign portfolio moderation.
- India's manufacturing sector continued to expand in December, with the seasonally adjusted HSBC India Manufacturing Purchasing Managers' Index (PMI) remaining firmly in expansionary territory at 55.0, despite easing from 56.6 in November. Importantly, the index stayed above its long-run average, indicating sustained improvement in overall sector health. New orders continued to rise at a strong pace, supported by steady domestic demand, while output growth, although moderating, reflected ongoing capacity utilisation.
- India's consumer price inflation remained subdued and well-anchored in December 2025, reflecting a stable price environment across the economy. Headline inflation, based on the All-India Consumer Price Index (CPI), stood at 1.33% year-on-year, indicating continued moderation in price pressures. The marginal month-on-month uptick of 62 basis points from November 2025 reflects normal seasonal movements, while overall inflation remained comfortably low, underscoring effective supply management and macroeconomic stability.
- India's GST collections continued to demonstrate underlying revenue resilience, supported by steady economic activity and compliance levels. Total Net GST revenue in December 2025 stood at Rs. 1.45 lakh crore (US$ 16.17 billion), reflecting normal month-on-month variation. On a cumulative basis, net yearly GST collections in December 2025 reached Rs. 14.25 lakh crore (US$ 163.59 billion), registering a year-on-year growth of 6.8%, underscoring sustained consumption momentum and the strengthening tax base.
- Passengers carried by domestic airlines during January-November 2025 were 1526.35 lakhs as against 1464.02 lakhs during the corresponding period of the previous year, thereby registering an annual growth of 4.26% and a monthly growth of 6.92%.
- The government is focusing on renewable energy sources and has achieved a major clean energy milestone by generating 50% of its power from renewable sources, five years ahead of its 2030 target. India is committed to achieving the country's ambition of Net Zero Emissions by 2070 through a five-pronged strategy, 'Panchamrit'. Moreover, India ranked 3rd in the renewable energy country attractive index.
- India secured 38th position out of 139 economies in the Global Innovation Index 2025. India rose from 81st position in 2015 to 38th position in 2024. India ranks in 3rd position in the global number of scientific publications.
- India's industrial activity witnessed a strong rebound in November 2025, with the Index of Industrial Production (IIP) growing by 6.7%, a sharp improvement from 0.4% in October 2025, indicating accelerating industrial momentum. The manufacturing sector led this expansion with a robust 8.0% growth, supported by positive performance across 20 out of 23 industry groups at the NIC two-digit level, reflecting a broad-based recovery. Key growth drivers included basic metals (10.2%), pharmaceuticals and medicinal products (10.5%), and motor vehicles and trailers (11.9%), highlighting strength in core, healthcare, and mobility-related industries. Overall, the IIP index rose to 158.0, up from 148.1 in November 2024, underscoring sustained expansion in India's industrial base.
- The government has set a calibrated wheat procurement target of 30 million tonnes for the 2025–26 rabi marketing season, ensuring efficient stock management and smooth market operations. This comes even as wheat production is projected at a record 115 million tonnes in 2024–25, reflecting strong output prospects. To support farmers, the MSP for wheat has been fixed at Rs. 2,425 per quintal, with procurement to be undertaken by FCI and state agencies to meet food security and welfare requirements.

Government Initiatives

Over the years, the Indian government has introduced many initiatives to strengthen the nation's economy. The Indian government has been effective in developing policies and programmes that are not only beneficial for citizens to improve their financial stability but also for the overall growth of the economy. Over recent decades, India's rapid economic growth has led to a substantial increase in its demand for exports. Besides this, a number of the government's flagship programmes, including Make in India, Start-up India, Digital India, the Smart City Mission, and the Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation, are aimed at creating immense opportunities in India. In this regard, some of the initiatives taken by the government to improve the economic condition of the country are mentioned below:

- Under the Startup India initiative, the Government continues to strengthen the start-up ecosystem through targeted funding, seed support, and credit guarantees. As of October 2025, women-led start-ups received investments and financial support of over Rs. 3,157 crore (US$ 0.38 billion) through the Fund of Funds for Startups, Startup India Seed Fund Scheme, and Credit Guarantee Scheme, reinforcing inclusive entrepreneurship and early-stage innovation across sectors.

- The Ministry of Labour & Employment signed an MoU with Zomato on October 14, 2025, to enhance employment opportunities through the National Career Service (NCS) portal. Under the agreement, Zomato will list around 2.5 lakh job opportunities annually, supporting the growth of the gig economy and promoting formal, technology-enabled livelihoods across India.
- The Production Linked Incentive (PLI) programme has significantly strengthened India's manufacturing base and export capabilities across priority sectors. As of September 2025, realised investments under PLI schemes stood at Rs. 2,00,000 crore (US$ 24.2 billion) across 14 sectors, leading to incremental production and sales exceeding Rs. 18,70,000 crore (US$ 226.5 billion) and generating over 12.6 lakh jobs (direct and indirect).
- In August 2025, Prime Minister Mr. Narendra Modi launched two major agriculture schemes worth Rs. 35,440 crore (US$ 4 billion), the PM Dhan-Dhaanya Krishi Yojana and the Mission for Aatmanirbharta in Pulses, aimed at boosting self-reliance, productivity, and farmers' income. He also inaugurated and laid foundation stones for projects worth over Rs. 6,200 crore (US$ 709 million) across agriculture, animal husbandry, fisheries, and food processing sectors.
- On July 5, 2025, the Union Cabinet approved the Rs. 1,00,000 crore (US$ 11.72 billion) Research, Development and Innovation (RDI) Scheme, launching long-term, low- or zero-interest funding via a special purpose fund under the ANRF to jump-start India's R&D ecosystem and support deep-tech and startup innovation.
- In March 2025, the Government announced several measures to boost industrial growth and investments, including initiatives such as Make in India, Start-up India, PM GatiShakti, and Production Linked Incentive (PLI) Schemes. The Cabinet Committee on Economic Affairs also approved 12 new projects worth Rs. 28,602 crore (US$ 325.02 million) under the National Industrial Corridor Development Programme (NICDP), spanning 10 states, to strengthen India's manufacturing base and attract investments.
- On March 27, 2025, the Reserve Bank of India proposed doubling the investment cap for individual foreign investors in listed firms from 5% to 10%, with a combined foreign individual limit increasing to 24%, to counter Foreign Portfolio Investment (FPI) outflows.
- According to a report by Wood Mackenzie in January 2025, India, the United States, and West Asia are expected to collectively add 100 Gigawatts (GW) of solar capacity by 2025, while China is anticipated to continue its leadership in the solar industry.
- The National e-Governance Division (NeGD) and the Indian Ports Association (IPA) signed an MoU on December 24, 2024, to drive digital transformation in India's maritime sector. The partnership focuses on system integration, software development, and the use of emerging technologies to enhance efficiency and modernise port operations.
- In July 2024, the Ministry of Finance held the Union Budget and announced that for 2024-25, the total receipts other than borrowings and the total expenditure are estimated at Rs. 32.07 lakh crore (US$ 383.93 billion) and Rs. 48.21 lakh crore (US$ 577.16 billion), respectively.
- In February 2024, the Finance Ministry announced the total expenditure in Interim 2024-25 estimated at Rs. 47,65,768 crore (US$ 571.64 billion) of which total capital expenditure is Rs. 11,11,111 crore (US$ 133.27 billion).
- On January 22, 2024, Prime Minister Mr. Narendra Modi announced the 'Pradhan Mantri Suryodaya Yojana'. Under this scheme, 1 crore households will receive rooftop solar installations.

Road Ahead

India's economic outlook remains robust, supported by strong macroeconomic fundamentals, resilient domestic demand, and sustained investment momentum. With Real GDP growth estimated at 7.4% in FY 2025–26, India continues to rank among the fastest-growing major economies globally, underpinned by broad-based expansion across manufacturing, services, and infrastructure.

A stable external position, reflected in foreign exchange reserves of Rs. 61.96 lakh crore (US$ 687.19 billion), along with steady foreign capital inflows through FDI, PE–VC investments, and debt instruments, reinforces confidence in India's long-term growth trajectory.

Domestic demand remains a key anchor, supported by subdued inflation, rising air passenger traffic, resilient GST collections, and strong DII participation in capital markets. Manufacturing activity continues to expand, with PMI remaining firmly in expansionary territory and IIP growth accelerating, while the government's focus on renewable energy, innovation, and food security further strengthens structural growth drivers. Collectively, these trends position India favourably to sustain economic momentum, deepen capital formation, and enhance its role as a global growth engine in the years ahead.

India's economy is projected to grow by 6.6% in FY27: SBI Research Report

India's economy is projected to grow by 6.6% in the FY27, according to an SBI Research report released in May 2026. The report noted that the Indian economy continues to demonstrate resilience despite global uncertainties and regional geopolitical conflicts. GDP growth for 2025-26 is estimated at 7.5%, while real GDP growth in the fourth quarter of FY26 is expected to remain close to 7.2%. The report highlighted that strong domestic consumption, improving rural demand and sustained credit growth are expected to support economic momentum in the coming fiscal year. High-frequency indicators also suggest that economic activity has remained robust, despite a slight moderation during the fourth quarter.

The report further stated that bank credit growth by scheduled commercial banks accelerated to 16.1% in FY26, compared to 11% in the previous year. Total incremental credit growth stood at Rs. 29.5 lakh crore (US$ 336.5 billion), with the second half of FY26 witnessing significantly stronger momentum than the first half. Rural consumption remained healthy due to positive farm and non-farm activity, while urban consumption received support from fiscal measures and festive demand. However, SBI Research noted that volatility in crude oil and commodity prices, along with the possibility of El Niño conditions, could create inflationary pressures in the near term. The report also emphasised the need for structural reforms to strengthen export competitiveness, promote import substitution, and enhance India's integration into global value chains.

MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY IN INDIA

Introduction

Manufacturing is emerging as a central pillar of India's economic growth, contributing around 16-17% of GDP and employing over 27 million workers. The sector's strength lies in the performance of key industries such as automotive, engineering, chemicals, pharmaceuticals, consumer durables, electronics, and textiles. Supported by government initiatives like Make in India and production-linked incentive (PLI) schemes, India is targeting manufacturing to account for 25% of GDP in the coming years.

Technology is playing a transformative role in reshaping the industry. Once anchored by the machine tool sector, India is now moving towards automation, digitalisation, and process-driven production. Digital transformation has spurred innovation, improved efficiency, and positioned manufacturers to remain competitive in global markets. The sector's momentum was reflected in October 2025, with the PMI rising to 59.2 on robust demand, faster output and purchasing growth, easing input inflation and sustained job gains supported by optimism around GST reforms.

India is also carving a niche in specialised global value chains. It has the potential to cater to 10% of the world's wind energy demand by 2030 through its growing capacity in wind power component manufacturing. In electronics, domestic value addition has risen from 30% to 70% and is projected to reach 90% by FY27. Global companies like Apple are expanding local manufacturing, with smartphone export volumes rising to 22.9 million units in the first half of 2025, compared to 15 million a year earlier. With its large workforce and cost competitiveness, India is well-positioned to become a lower-cost alternative to China for advanced technology manufacturing, according to the World Bank.

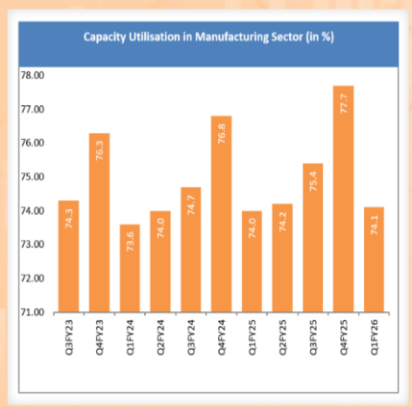

The government has reinforced this growth with policy support. The National Manufacturing Policy has evolved into the new National Manufacturing Mission, announced in Union Budget 2025-26, which focuses on five key areas: ease and cost of doing business, a future-ready workforce, vibrant MSMEs, access to technology, and quality manufacturing. The mission also seeks to build clean-tech ecosystems across solar PV cells, EV batteries, electrolyzers, wind turbines, and grid-scale batteries. Alongside, a new focus product scheme has been launched to boost India's footwear and leather sector, projected to generate 22 lakh jobs, achieve turnover of Rs. 4 lakh crore (US$ 45.7 billion) and enable exports worth over Rs. 1.1 lakh crore (US$ 12.6 billion).

Investment trends further underline the sector's dynamism. FDI inflows into manufacturing have reached Rs. 14.3 lakh crore (US$ 165.1 billion), a 69% increase over the past decade, with total FDI inflows crossing Rs. 33.3 lakh crore (US$ 383.5 billion) in the last five years. Under the PLI schemes, Rs. 21,534 crore (US$ 2.46 billion) has already been disbursed across 12 sectors, attracting investments worth Rs. 1.76 lakh crore (US$ 20.1 billion). The government is also planning additional incentives of Rs. 18,000 crore (US$ 2.2 billion) for six new sectors, including chemicals, shipping containers, and vaccine inputs.

Complementing this, India's digital economy is projected to account for 20% of GDP by 2029-30, growing twice as fast as the overall economy. This widespread digitalisation, coupled with manufacturing growth, will reinforce India's role in global supply chains.

A globally competitive manufacturing sector represents one of India's greatest opportunities to drive growth, employment, and exports in the coming decade. With strong policy backing, a skilled workforce, rising FDI, and a shift toward automation and clean technologies, India is making a credible bid to establish itself as a global manufacturing hub.

Market Size

India's manufacturing strength is accelerating, with exports rising and core sectors like electronics, pharmaceuticals, automobiles and textiles positioning the country to approach Rs. 88,67,000 crore (US$ 1 trillion) in output by FY26 and strengthen its role as a global manufacturing hub.

Looking ahead, India's e-commerce exports are projected to grow from Rs. 8,757 crore (US$ 1 billion) to Rs. 35,02,800 crore (US$ 400 billion) annually by 2030, which will aid in achieving Rs. 1,75,14,000 crore (US$ 2 trillion) in total exports. By the same year, the Indian middle class is expected to have the second-largest share in global consumption at 17%.

India's manufacturing sector also continues to strengthen, with the potential to reach Rs. 87,57,000 crore (US$ 1 trillion) by FY26. The country could add more than Rs. 43,43,500 crore (US$ 500 billion) annually to the global economy by 2030 if it fully realizes its potential as a global manufacturing hub. The display panel market, for instance, is estimated to grow from Rs. 60,809 crore (US$ 7 billion) in 2021 to Rs. 1,30,305 crore (US$ 15 billion) in 2025.

The Indian startup ecosystem has also shown resilience and momentum. Between November 18 and 23, 2024, startups secured approximately Rs. 5,177.45 crore (US$ 596 million) in funding, marking a 226% increase compared to the previous week. This surge was driven by 23 startups, including Zepto raising Rs. 3,040.45 crore (US$ 350 million) and HealthKart securing Rs. 1,329.11 crore (US$ 153 million). On average, weekly funding over the past eight weeks has been around Rs. 2,317.43 crore (US$ 266.77 million), bringing the total raised in 2024 to nearly Rs. 86,870 crore (US$ 10 billion). - In the Union Budget 2025-26:
  - The Union Budget 2025-26 has been well received by the renewable energy industry, with experts praising its emphasis on clean power, domestic manufacturing, and sustainability. Key initiatives include the Rs. 20,000 crore (US$ 2.30 billion) allocation for nuclear energy, legislative reforms for energy security, and the Rs. 20,000 crore (US$ 2.30 billion) commitment to the PM Surya Ghar Muft Bijli Yojana for rooftop solar expansion.
  - On February 7, 2025, the Union Cabinet has approved the restructuring of the Skill India Programme with an Rs. 8,800 crore (US$ 1.1 billion) outlay, extending it till 2026 to integrate demand-driven, tech-enabled, industry-aligned training nationwide.
  - The Union Cabinet has announced the merger of Pradhan Mantri Kaushal Vikas Yojana 4.0, Pradhan Mantri National Apprenticeship Promotion Scheme, and Jan Shikshan Sansthan Scheme under the Skill India Programme.

On the 10th anniversary of the 'Make in India' initiative, Union Commerce and Industry Minister Mr. Piyush Goyal reported significant achievements, including an 85% reduction in mobile imports and a 200% increase in manufacturing jobs from 2022 to 2024. He emphasized that 99% of mobile phones in India are now produced domestically, reflecting the initiative's success in transforming India's manufacturing landscape and attracting substantial Foreign Direct Investment (FDI). He highlighted ongoing efforts to improve the ease of doing business and support the startup ecosystem, aiming to position India as a global manufacturing hub and a developed nation by 2047.

Road Ahead

India is rapidly positioning itself as a global manufacturing hub, supported by government initiatives, rising domestic demand, and strong export momentum. The sector is projected to reach Rs. 87,57,000 crore (US$ 1 trillion) by FY26, with electronics, automotive, and engineering emerging as key growth drivers. According to the Indian Cellular and Electronics Association (ICEA), India could scale its cumulative laptop and tablet manufacturing capacity to US$ 100 billion by 2025 with the right policy interventions.

The government has introduced several programmes to accelerate this growth. The Ministry for Heavy Industries and Public Enterprises launched SAMARTH Udyog Bharat 4.0, or SAMARTH Advanced Manufacturing and Rapid Transformation Hubs, to foster advanced manufacturing practices and enhance competitiveness in the capital goods market. Alongside, the development of industrial corridors and smart cities is creating integrated ecosystems that support innovation, improve logistics, and promote sustainable industrial growth.

As multinational companies expand their production bases and India strengthens its physical and digital infrastructure, the country is well placed to deepen its role in global supply chains. By combining policy support with technology adoption and a skilled workforce, India has the potential not only to meet domestic demand but also to capture a larger share of global manufacturing opportunities in the coming decade.

ENGINEERING INDUSTRY IN INDIA

Introduction

Engineering is the largest industrial sector in India and accounts for 3.53% of the country's Gross Domestic Product (GDP). The country's engineering sector comprises manufacturing iron, steel, related products, non-ferrous metals, industrial machinery, automobiles, auto components, and other engineering products. The key goods exported under the industrial machinery category are IC (Internal combustion) engines and parts, industrial machinery for dairy, food processing, textiles, industrial machinery like boilers, parts, machinery for injecting moulding, valves, and ATMs

India became a permanent Washington Accord (WA) member in June 2014. It is now part of an exclusive group of 17 countries that are permanent signatories of the WA, an elite international agreement on engineering studies and the mobility of engineers.

India's engineering sector has witnessed remarkable growth over the last few years, driven by increased investment in infrastructure and industrial production. In 2019, the government announced an investment of US$ 1.5 trillion in infrastructure development until 2026. In the Union Budget 2025-26, the government has allocated US$ 129.03 billion to enhance the transport infrastructure, thereby signalling the demand for engineering sector. The engineering sector is an important component of the broader manufacturing sector, and the share of engineering products in overall manufacturing output is quite significant. It is also a highly organized sector dominated by large players employing over four million skilled and semi-skilled labour.

Export Trend

Note: *Until July 2025

Source: Engineering Export Promotion Council of India (EEPC), Ministry of Commerce

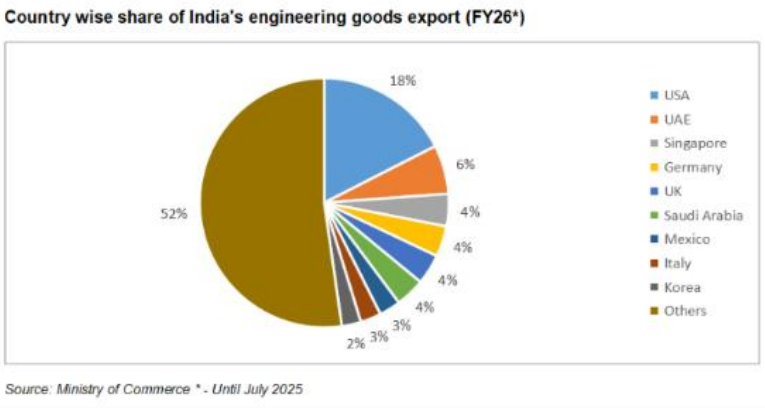

In FY25, India's engineering exports reached a record high of US$ 116.67 billion, surpassing the previous peak of US$ 112.10 billion recorded in FY22. This represents the fifth record-setting year for the sector in the past eleven years. The sector grew 6.74% YoY from US$ 109.30 billion in FY24, significantly outpacing overall merchandise exports, which increased by just 0.08% to US$ 437.42 billion. Engineering exports now constitute 26.67% of India's total merchandise exports, up from 25.01% the prior year. This strong performance is notable given the challenging global backdrop, including geopolitical tensions, economic slowdowns in key markets, and rising tariffs by the United States, highlighting the resilience and competitiveness of India's engineering sector.

In FY26 (April-July 2025) export of engineering products stood at US$ 37.9 billion up from US$ 35.8 billion in the same period last year, reflecting steady growth in the sector.

Exports of capital goods contributed 62% total engineering exports from India. Primary iron, steel, and its products exports accounted for 17%, while Non-ferrous metals and products and consumer durables exports contributed 10% and 11% of India's engineering goods exports in FY25, respectively.

Export Destinations

Regionally, North America remained the leading export market with a 20.5% share, followed by the European Union (EU) at 17.1% and the West Asia-North Africa (WANA) region at 16.7%. Strong growth was recorded in Latin America (20%), Other Europe (19%), and Northeast Asia (14%), while exports to Oceania declined 10.4% and to the EU slipped 1.9%

By country, the United States continued as the top destination, followed by the United Arab Emirates and Saudi Arabia. France posted the highest export growth at 43.2%, with Nepal at 37% and the United Kingdom at 32.9%. Overall, the United States remained the largest market, with notable gains in shipments to the UAE, Singapore, Nepal, Japan, and France. The share of the top five importing nations of India's engineering goods accounted for 36% of India's total engineering exports in FY26 (April-July 2025). This significant share is evidence of the dependence of India's engineering exports on the traditional markets.

Government Initiatives

The government of India has implemented various export promotion schemes, such as the Zero Duty Export Promotion Capital Goods (EPCG) scheme, Towns of Export Excellence (TEE), Market Access Initiative (MAI), etc. These schemes are aimed at encouraging the exporter and to help increase the revenue from international markets. Also, schemes such as duty exemption, advance authorization, duty-free import, rebate on service tax, etc. have been implemented to ease raw material imports. The Indian Engineering Exposition (INDEE), a brand of EEPC India, is one of the largest engineering expositions in the world.

Apart from the specific schemes mentioned above, the Government of India has taken several initiatives to support and enhance the competitiveness of the domestic engineering goods manufacturing firms such as the "Make in India" initiative, PLI scheme for Automobile, and Auto components, PLI scheme for National Programme on Advanced Chemistry Cell (ACC) Battery Storage, FAME INDIA II scheme, Capital goods scheme, Industry 4.0.

The Government of India, along with the Engineering Export Promotion Council, frequently organizes the International Engineering Sourcing Show (IESS) with the main objective of promoting India's image and providing a platform for Indian exporters to showcase their strengths and capabilities in an emerging market. This has become a unique platform between Indian and overseas engineering firms with B2B meets, thematic seminars and exclusive country and state sessions, bilateral forums.

CORRELATION BETWEEN MANUFACTURING OUTPUT AND ENGINEERING EXPORTS

Engineering forms a considerable part of the broader manufacturing sector and the share of engineering production in overall manufacturing output is quite significant. As exports generally come from what is produced within a country, some correlation between manufacturing production growth and engineering export growth should exist. We briefly look at the trend in manufacturing growth as also engineering export growth to see if they move in tandem. It may be mentioned that manufacturing has 77.63% weightage in India's industrial production.

Engineering export growth and manufacturing output growth moved in the same direction in as many as nine out of twelve months in each of the fiscal years 2019-20 and 2020-21. During fiscal 2021-22, engineering export growth and manufacturing growth moved in the same direction in seven out of twelve monthswhile in each of fiscal 2022-23 and 2023-24, as many as10 out of 12 months saw engineering exports and manufacturing output moved in the same direction. In 2024-25, both moved in the same direction in eight out of 12 months.

The first two month of fiscal 2025-26 saw engineering export growth and manufacturing output growth moved in the opposite direction. In April, engineering export growth surged to double digit and manufacturing growth decelerated, while in May engineering export declined and manufacturing output growth inched up over the month. Then, In June, July and August 2025 however, both moved on the same direction. In June and July, both witnessed improvement in growth while in Aug 2025, both conceded moderation in growth. In September 2025 however, engineering growth continued to slowdown but manufacturing growth accelerated. Both engineering growth and manufacturing growth moved in the same direction during October to December 2025. October 2025 saw both going down with decline in engineering exports while Novbemebr 2025 witnessed surged in both with substantially higher growth. In December 2025 however, while engineering exports grew, the growth rate slowed down whereas the manufacturing growth rate was maintained. The month of January 2026 however saw scceleration in engineering export growth but moderation in manufacturing output growth.

The link between these two may not be established in one or two months, but a positive correlation may be seen if medium to long term trend is considered.

OUR PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

OUR PRODUCTS –

1. Pelletizing Die Plates – These are specialized components used in pelletizing machines, which are designed to convert raw materials (like plastics, biomass, or feedstock) into uniform pellets. These die plates contain multiple precisely drilled holes through which the softened or melted material is forced and cut into pellets by rotating knives or blades.

Types of Die Plates

- Tungsten Carbide Inlays/Nibs

  These die plates feature small tungsten carbide inserts, called inlays or nibs, embedded into the base material. The inlays provide enhanced wear resistance and durability in critical areas, extending the lifespan of the die plate without the cost of making the entire plate from tungsten carbide.

- Tungsten Carbide (TC/TiC) Segments

  Similar to standard tungsten carbide segments, these use specific grades of tungsten carbide such as Titanium Carbide (TiC) for improved hardness and wear resistance. TiC segments are designed for extreme operating conditions where higher abrasion resistance is required.

- Tungsten Carbide Rings

  These die plates incorporate tungsten carbide rings, typically positioned around critical openings or edges, offering superior protection against wear and tear. This design helps maintain precision and extends the life of the die plate in high-friction zones.

- Different Metallurgies/Insulation

  Die plates can be manufactured using a variety of metallurgical compositions to suit different operating environments. Additionally, insulation layers or coatings may be applied to manage heat transfer, reduce thermal stress, and improve the performance and longevity of the die plates.

2. Pelletizing Blades/Knives - Pelletizing blades or knives are specialized cutting tools used in pelletizing machines to slice or cut material (usually plastic, rubber, or biomass) into uniform pellets. These pellets are then used in various manufacturing processes, such as injection molding, extrusion, or compounding. Pelletizing blades are essential for achieving high-quality pellets that meet size, shape, and density standards.

We manufacture pelletizing blades and knives in various grades, including D2, M2, PM steel, and special alloys for high-wear applications.

We manufacture various types of blades/knives for machines used in polyolefins pelletizing die plates, These blades/knives are Bi-Metal and solid designs that fit into various types of blade holders.

3. Blade Holders/Cutter Hub - A Blade Holder Cutter Hub is a device used in cutting tools, often for precision tasks such as crafting, industrial cutting, etc. It holds the blade securely in place, allowing it to rotate or move with precision. This tool is commonly used in rotary cutters, oscillating tools, or any equipment where blades need to be attached and replaced frequently.

Blade Holder Cutter Hubs are typically made from durable materials such as:
1) Alloy steel
2) Stainless steel

4. Tapped Driving Bush - A "tapped driving bush" is a type of bush (a cylindrical component) that has internal threads. These threads allow a screw or bolt to be screwed directly into the bush, effectively creating a threaded hole in a component. Tapped driving bushes are commonly used in various applications, including automotive suspension, industrial machinery, and more, where a robust and secure threaded connection is needed.

• A2000-Tapped driving bush

• AH4000-Tapped driving bush

OUR BUSINESS PROCESS

1. Enquiry

   The process begins when the customer sends an inquiry about a product or service. This includes details such as specifications, quantity, and delivery requirements. It helps us to understand customer's needs clearly.

2. Quotation

   Based on the received inquiry, a detailed quotation is prepared and shared with the customer. This quotation includes pricing, delivery time, terms, and conditions, providing the customer with all necessary information for decision-making.

3. PO Copy

   Once the quotation is approved by the customer, they send a Purchase Order (PO) confirming their intent to proceed with the order. This PO serves as a formal agreement between both parties.

4. PI (If Required)

   In certain cases, especially for advance payments, a Proforma Invoice (PI) is generated. This document outlines the agreed terms and is shared with the customer for verification before moving forward.

5. Order Confirmation

   After receiving the PO, the order is officially confirmed. Internal teams are notified to initiate the next steps in processing and fulfilling the order.

6. Identify Item for Trading/Manufacturing/Service

   The item is then assessed to determine whether it will be sourced directly (trading) or needs to be produced in-house (manufacturing) or it is for service. This step ensures proper planning and resource allocation.

7. Instruction as per the Requirement

   Based on the type of item and customer specifications, work instructions are created. These instructions guide the team on how to handle the order, including customization, quality checks, and timelines.

8. Packing

   Once the item is ready, it is packed securely and appropriately, ensuring it meets safety, handling, and shipping standards. Proper labelling and documentation are also prepared at this stage.

9. Dispatch

   Finally, the packed goods are dispatched to the customer via the designated logistics provider. Tracking details and relevant documents are shared to ensure timely and safe delivery.

OUR MANUFACTURING PROCESS

1. Enquiry to Order Confirmation –

Process starts with Customer enquiry and once the enquiry translates into Order Confirmation PHN (Product Hand Note) is generated and shared with Operation and Design team to procure raw material.

2. Raw Material

Raw materials serve as the fundamental base for manufacturing. They are essential for initiating the production of the die plate and form the core of a robust industrial process.

3. Inspection

An inspection of raw materials is carried out to make sure they meet exact quality as per require design, safety, and performance standards.

4. CNC Process

CNC machining is used to shape the raw material using pre-programmed computer instructions. This ensures precise, consistent, and efficient shaping of the die plate's geometry.

5. VMC Process

The Vertical Machining Center (VMC) performs advanced operations like milling and drilling. With a vertical spindle, it enables the creation of detailed and accurate features on the die plate.

6. Tapper Drill

Milling Machine uses rotating cutting tools to remove material and create precise shapes, slots, and holes. It can handle both simple and complex parts required in polymer die making. Milling ensures accurate dimensions, smooth surfaces, and prepares the die components for further processing.

7. S.R.

Stress relieving is a process used to reduce internal residual stress in metal parts caused by manufacturing operations like CNC. VMC, Tapper drill and other machining processes.

8. Brazing

The brazing process was achieved in a vacuum environment. This fuses the components without melting the base metal, ensuring strong joints. Vacuum furnaces installed at the unit is electrically heated, flameless and operate under vacuum conditions, generating no air emissions, no flue gas and no waste water. Entire process of brazing is clean and non-polluting.

9. Electric Drilling Machine Process

This stage uses an electric motor-powered drill to create holes in the die plate. The process involves proper bit selection and controls downward pressure for precise hole formation.

10. Wire Cut Process

Wire EDM (Electrical Discharge Machining) uses a thin wire to cut complex shapes. Dielectric fluid and CNC motion control enable precise machining of hard materials in the die plate.

11. Polishing

A polishing process refines a surface to achieve a smooth, reflective, and scratch-free finish. It uses progressively finer abrasives to remove surface imperfections and identify deep scratches, corrosion, or defects that need extra attention. Choose the correct abrasive compounds and polishing pads for the specific material.

12. Final Machining

CNC (Computer Numerical Control) is a computerized system that controls machine tools with high precision. It uses pre-programmed instructions (G-code) to automate cutting, milling, drilling, and shaping of materials. CNC ensures consistent quality, high accuracy, and efficient production, which is crucial for making polymer die and mold.

13. Grinding

Rotary Surface Grinding Machine uses a rotating worktable and a grinding wheel to achieve flat and smooth surfaces. It ensures high surface finish and tight thickness tolerance in die components. In polymer die making, it is used for final finishing and achieving perfect flatness of mold parts.

14. Cleaning

The cleaning process in mechanical industries involves removing grease, metal chips, rust, and heavy oils from machinery and parts using physical force, specialized tools, and safe solutions. Scrape or vacuum loose metal chips, dust, and heavy dirt. Use wire brushes, floor scrubbers, or high-pressure washers to scour tough spots.

15. Inspection

An inspection is carried out to verify that the product fully meets the required design specifications, safety norms, and performance standards. If any defect or deviation is detected, the product is immediately routed for corrective re-work before final approval.

16. Assembly

Product assembly in the mechanical industry is the systematic process of joining individual parts and subassemblies to create a fully functional, reliable mechanical system.

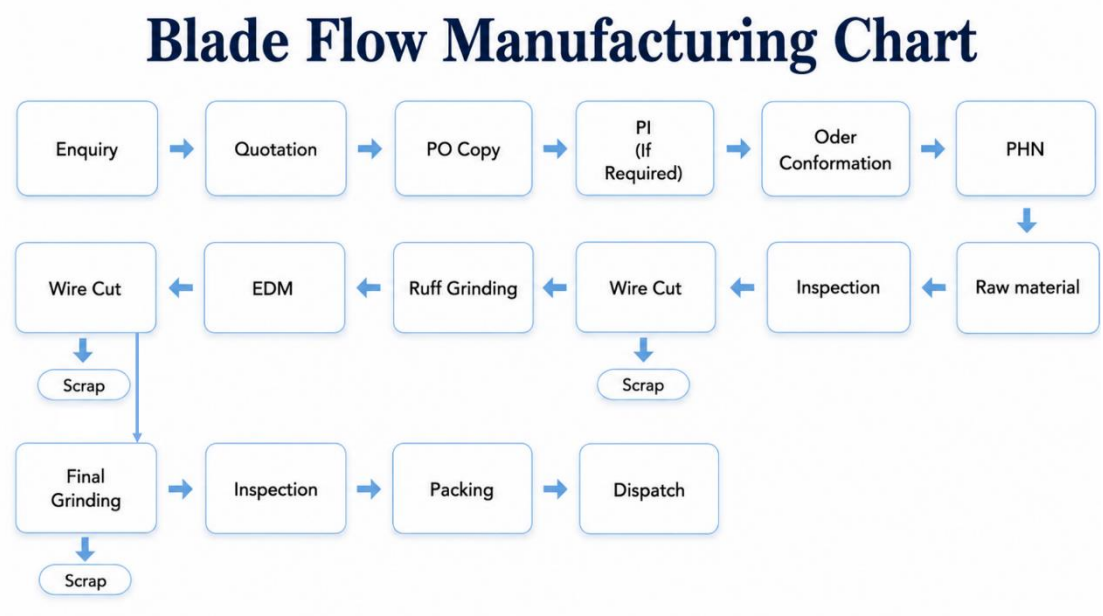

17. Packing

To pack a product safely for shipping, place the item in individual inner protection, secure it inside a sturdy corrugated box with filler materials to stop shifting, and seal it tightly using strong packing tape.

18. Dispatch

The dispatch process is the step-by-step procedure of preparing, documenting, and releasing a completed order from a warehouse or facility to a carrier for delivery

Scrap :- VMC, CNC, Final Machining, and Wire-Cut processes generate Mild Steel (MS) scrap as part of normal material removal.

1. Enquiry to Order Confirmation

Process starts with Customer enquiry and once the enquiry translates into Order Confirmation PHN (Product Hand Note) is generated and shared with Operation and Design team to procure raw material.

2. Raw Material

Raw materials are the base components required to manufacture the blade. These are essential building blocks that support all subsequent processes and are crucial to maintaining a strong industrial base.

3.Inspection

An inspection of raw materials is carried out to make sure they meet exact quality as per require design, safety, and performance standards.

4.Wire Cut Process

This process uses Wire EDM (Electrical Discharge Machining), where a thin wire acts as the electrode. It precisely cuts complex shapes from hard materials like tungsten carbide using CNC-controlled motion and dielectric fluid for accuracy.

5.Ruff Grinding

Grinding is a precision operation that removes excess material using an abrasive wheel or belt. This ensures a smooth surface finish and accurate dimensions, preparing the blade for further stages.

6.Electric Drilling Machine Process

Holes are created using an electric motor-driven drill. This involves choosing the right bit, fixing the workpiece, and drilling with rotating motion and pressure to achieve the desired depth and diameter.

7.Wire Cut Process (Repeated)

Wire EDM is again used to perform additional complex cuts required for the final blade shape or features. This repetition ensures intricate geometries are accurately produced.

8.Grinding Process (Repeated)

A final grinding stage ensures that surface quality and dimensional tolerances meet the final product standards. This guarantees a refined and accurate finish.

9. Inspection

To further enhance our logistics capabilities, we are partnering with reliable distribution networks. These enable us to meet the growing demand for our products while maintaining a customer satisfaction. Our approach ensures the reliable and timely delivery of our products.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

As we are engaged in manufacturing of high-precision die plates and related components used in underwater pelletizing systems for the polymer-processing industry. Such products require precision and stringent quality testing, backed by our research and development ("R&D") capabilities. Our R&D unit, integrated within our Manufacturing Facility, are focused on developing new product features, optimizing manufacturing processes, and advancing performance and sustainability of products to meet evolving needs of our customers. As of now, we have in-house R&D team comprising employees from our Design, Operations and Quality Control team, lead by Mr. Rajkumar Chaudhary, Chairman & Managing Director, who directly contributed to this R&D through his technical expertise and dedicated personal involvement.

In FY 2023-24 and FY 2024-25, the Company's activities relating to the product were at the research and evaluation stage. Accordingly, the expenditure incurred during this period was treated as revenue expenditure and charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss, as there was no basis for capitalisation of such expenditure during the research phase under the applicable accounting principles.

In FY 2025-26, the company has made total Rs. 151.69 Lakhs expenditure towards R&D work. We believe we have the capability to establish new verticals and product categories efficiently.

During the Financial Year 2025-26, the Company ran development work across nine projects, spanning oil-heated die plates, carbide-tipped plates, large-format plates and cutting blades for large die plates. However, our R&D project remained the D-500 (720 x 102 mm) Oil-Heated Die Plate. The D-500 (720 x 102 mm), Oil Heated Pelletizing Die Plate is a critical component used in pelletizing systems for graphite based polystyrene extrusion processing industries in Europe and cold climate countries.

Alongside the D-500 (720 x 102 mm), the Company developed two carbide-tipped Ferro-TIC plates (SP-70 and SP-100). This was basically a significant improvement breakthrough in an existing product aimed at longer useful life. This was an experiment to improve the hardness of the standard die plates and consequently the life of the plate without affecting its characteristics. Experiment started with TIC-128 and then TIC-Nicrodur and finally after several trials, we arrived at the Ferrotic (F-TIC) which gave our desired results, i.e hardness of the plate was improved without affecting other vital parameters. This will increase the life expectancy of the die plate and would prove a cost-effective, durable product for the OEM giving us an edge over other manufacturers dealing only with the standard products.

Besides experimenting on large size die plates, we are also experimenting on large size Blades to be mounted on these large size die plates. We are also experimenting with vacuum based design with the standard product SP-100. Until now we were using air gap design. We experienced that with the air gap design, the back pressure gets increased causing uneven distribution of temperature leading to frequent hole freezing.

With the success of D-500 (720 x 102 mm), we are encouraged to experimenting with another large size die plate D-500 (845 x 100 mm) to scale the D-500 design to a larger plate diameter. This experiment extends the D-500 platform to larger format.

The table below sets forth certain information in relation to our research and development expenses for the periods indicated:

Particulars	Fiscal 2026	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024
	Amount (₹ In Lakhs)	Amount (₹ In Lakhs)	Amount (₹ In Lakhs)
R&D Expenses	151.69*	Nil	Nil

*The R&D Expenses incurred for the fiscal year 2026 has been treated as intangible asset under development.

Gain from R&D

During FY 2025-26, R&D work is more than a set of individual products. It builds a capability, and that capability creates several reinforcing benefits:

- A niche, import-substitution segment: high-precision die plates of this kind, particularly for graphite-polystyrene pelletizing, have largely been imported from European manufacturers. A locally engineered product to comparable specification is a genuine import-substitution opportunity, and the Company's work positions MESL among the few Asian manufacturers able to serve this segment
- Higher value, limited competition: precision-engineered die plates and the move into smaller hole sizes (down to 0.6 mm) and large-format plates sit in a higher-value segment where competition is limited.
- Capability that compounds: every project completed this year leaves behind a design baseline, proven process parameters, tooling and supplier relationships. The next variant in each family; a different hole count, a different size, a different polymer, can be developed at a fraction of the cost and time of the first. The Ferro-TIC hardness work, for example, improves the durability of an entire product line without changing its core characteristics.
- Stronger market position: completing work of this difficulty changes what the Company can credibly quote for, strengthens its standing with existing customers, and is already generating enquiries from OEMs.

ENVIRONMENT, HEALTH & SAFETY

We continue to ensure compliance with applicable health and safety regulations and other requirements in our operations. We have complied, and will continue to comply, with all applicable environmental and associated laws, rules and regulations. We have obtained, or are in the process of obtaining or renewing, all material environmental consents and licenses from the relevant governmental agencies that are necessary for us to carry on our business. For further information, please see the chapters titled "Key Industry Regulations" and "Government and other Statutory Approvals" beginning on page 200 and 263 respectively.

The Company is required to comply with the applicable requirements of the Act (and/or corresponding provisions under the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020, to the extent brought into force), in relation to any engagement of inter-State migrant workmen, as applicable from time to time. In order to rationalize and reform labour laws in India, the Government of India has framed four labour codes, consolidating some of the above-mentioned statutes, namely:

(1) CODE ON WAGES, 2019 (With Central Rules, 2026)

The Code on Wages, 2019, which received Presidential Assent on 8 August 2019 and was notified on November 21, 2025, consolidates the erstwhile Payment of Wages Act, 1936, the Minimum Wages Act, 1948, the Payment of Bonus Act, 1965, and the Equal Remuneration Act, 1976. It ensures uniform definitions and guarantees timely payment of wages, minimum wages as notified, and statutory bonuses across both organised and unorganised sectors. This code introduces a national floor wage to bring consistency across States, mandates approved modes of wage payment (coin, currency notes, cheque, or digital transfer), and strengthens enforcement through inspectors-cum-facilitators and a simplified claims process.

The Code on Wages (Central) Rules, 2026, which were notified on May 8, 2026, operationalize the provisions by prescribing detailed procedures for fixation and revision of minimum wages, payment of wages, and bonuses. They establish uniform formats for registers, records, and returns to ensure transparency, define the role of inspectors-cum-facilitators, streamline the claims process, and secure mechanisms for timely wage disbursement. By harmonizing wage-related procedures, the Rules enhance accountability, reduce disputes, and safeguard statutory rights of employees across all sectors.

(2) INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS CODE, 2020 (With Central Rules, 2026)

The Industrial Relations Code, 2020, which received Presidential Assent on September 28, 2020 and was notified on November 21, 2025, consolidates the erstwhile Trade Unions Act, 1926, the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946, and the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 into a single framework. It promotes harmonious employer-employee relations by simplifying trade union registration, recognising negotiating unions or councils, and setting standards for grievance redressal. The code provides clear procedures for layoffs, retrenchment, and closure in industrial establishments, introduces fixed-term employment with proportionate benefits, and emphasises dispute resolution through conciliation, arbitration, and adjudication, balancing flexibility for employers with adequate worker protections.

The Industrial Relations (Central) Rules, 2026, which were notified on May 8, 2026, operationalize the Code by prescribing procedures for recognition of trade unions, settlement of disputes, and regulation of employment conditions. They detail the constitution and functioning of Works Committees, Grievance Redressal Committees, and Industrial Tribunals, and lay down formats for registers, returns, and notices to ensure transparency. By streamlining collective bargaining and dispute resolution processes, these rules strengthen participatory mechanisms, reduce litigation, and foster a balanced framework protecting both workers' rights and employers' interests.

(3) CODE ON SOCIAL SECURITY, 2020 (With Central Rules, 2026)

The Code on Social Security, 2020 consolidates nine central labour laws relating to social security, including the erstwhile EPF Act, ESI Act, Maternity Benefit Act, Employees' Compensation Act, and others. It aims to extend social security benefits to all categories of workers, including employees in the organised sector, unorganised workers, gig workers, and platform workers. The Code makes provisions for provident fund, pension, insurance, maternity benefits, gratuity, and employee compensation, and empowers the government to frame schemes specifically for the unorganised sector. It mandates employers to provide social security registrations and maintain records, while employees are entitled to benefits such as sickness benefits, maternity leave, disablement benefits, and family pension depending on their scheme coverage. The Code also provides for the establishment of Social Security Organisations for administration and enforcement and recognises the role of aggregators in contributing towards the welfare of gig and platform workers.

The Social Security (Central) Rules, 2026, which were notified on May 8, 2026, operationalize the Code by prescribing procedures for registration, contribution, and benefit disbursement under schemes like provident fund, pension, insurance, and maternity benefits. They clarify eligibility for employees and gig/platform workers, define the role of aggregators in contributing to social security funds, and establish formats for registers, returns, and compliance reporting. The Rules strengthen enforcement through inspection protocols and claims processes, ensuring timely access to statutory benefits. By harmonizing procedures and extending coverage to new categories of workers, they create a comprehensive and inclusive framework for worker welfare and financial protection.

(4) OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY, HEALTH AND WORKING CONDITIONS CODE, 2020 (With Central Rules, 2026)

The Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020 consolidates 13 erstwhile laws related to safety, health, and working conditions of workers in various establishments, Including the Factories Act, 1948, the Contract Labour (Regulation & Abolition) Act, 1970, & the Inter-State Migrant Workmen (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act, 1979, among others, into a single framework. The Code seeks to ensure that every worker is provided with a safe working environment, adequate occupational health standards, and regulated working hours. It mandates employers to provide free annual health check-ups, welfare facilities, and protective equipment depending on the nature of work, and to ensure risk-free and hazard-free working conditions. The Code also addresses the rights of inter-state migrant workers by introducing a portability-based registration system and enabling them to avail benefits in the destination State. Licensing processes for contractors and establishments are simplified through a single-registration system. The overall objective is to enhance safety, reduce workplace hazards, and promote humane working conditions across industries.

The Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions (Central) Rules, 2026, which were notified on May 8, 2026, operationalize the Code by prescribing detailed standards for workplace safety, health, and welfare. They specify procedures for registration of establishments, appointment of safety officers, and provision of facilities such as drinking water, sanitation, ventilation, and medical aid. The Rules also regulate working hours, leave entitlements, and employment conditions for women and contract labour, while mandating compliance registers, reporting formats, and inspection protocols. By harmonizing safety procedures and strengthening enforcement, they safeguard workers' health, reduce occupational risks, and ensure humane working conditions across both organised and unorganised sectors.

The Company shall continue to comply with applicable labour laws, including the provisions of the Labour Codes, erstwhile labour legislations (to the extent saved), and the rules, schemes and notifications issued thereunder, as applicable from time to time.

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention on accrual basis, except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair value.

2.02 Basis of Preparation of Cash Flow Statement

The Cash Flow Statement is prepared and presented in accordance with the provisions of enerally Accepted Accounting Principles in India ('Indian GAAP') , Statement of Cash Flows, as notified under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013.
The statement reports cash flows classified into operating, investing, and financing activities based on the following principles:
Include cash flows primarily derived from the principal revenue-generating activities of the Company.
Include cash flows from the acquisition and disposal of long-term assets and investments.
Include cash flows related to changes in the size and composition of the Company's equity and borrowings.

The Cash Flow Statement is prepared using the indirect method, where net profit or loss is adjusted for the effects of non-cash transactions, changes in working capital, and other income or expenses related to investing or financing activities.Cash and cash equivalents for the purpose of the Cash Flow Statement include cash on hand, demand deposits, and short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.03 Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires the management of the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported balances of assets and liabilities and disclosures relating to the contingent liabilities as at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of income and expense during the year. Examples of such estimates include provisions for doubtful receivables, provision for income taxes, the useful lives of depreciable fixed assets and provision for impairment. Future results could differ due to changes in these estimates and the difference between the actual result and the estimates are recognised in the period in which the results are known / materialise.

2.04 Basis of Accounting

The company follows the mercantile system of accounting and recognizes income & expenditure on accrual basis unless specifically stated otherwise. The financial statements are prepared under historical cost convention on going concern basis in accordance with the applicable mandatory accounting standards issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. The accounting policies are consistent with those while preparing the financial statements for the year ended 31-07-2026.

2.05 Property, Plant and Equipment

Fixed Assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. The cost of assets comprises of purchase price and directly attributable cost of bringing the assets to working condition for its intended use including borrowing cost and incidental expenditure during construction incurred up to the date of commissioning.

2.06 Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less any accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Cost of intangible assets less their estimated residual values is amortised over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method followed by the Company and is included in depreciation and amortisation in the Restated Summary Statement of Profit and Loss.

During FY 2025–26, The Company has capitalised development expenditure of Rs. 151.69 lakh incurred on eligible research and development activities relating to the design and development of high-precision die plates. The expenditure relates to the development of the flagship D-500 die plate, featuring 3,045 micro-holes and an advanced oil-heating system, along with other high-precision products currently under development. These development activities are expected to generate future economic benefits by enhancing the Company's technological capabilities, strengthening its position in the niche, high-value import-substitution market, and supporting future commercial production.

2.07 Depreciation and Amortization

Depreciation on Property, plant and equipment has been provided on Straight Line Method (SLM) basis as per Part-C, Schedule II of the Companies Act 2013. Depreciation on additions to/deletions from Property, plant and equipment is provided on pro-rata basis from/up to the date of such addition/deletion, as the case may be.

During FY 2025-26, the Company has changed its method of providing depreciation on fixed assets from the Written Down Value (WDV) method to the Straight-Line Method (SLM). In accordance with Accounting Standard (AS) 5 "Net Profit or Loss for the Period, Prior Period Items and Changes in Accounting Policies" read with AS 10 "Accounting for Fixed Assets," a change in the method of depreciation is treated as a change in accounting estimate and not a change in accounting policy. Accordingly, This change does not require restatement of the financial statements of prior periods. The impact of changing the method from WDV to SLM has led to decrease in depreciation expense and increase in profit before tax by ₹ 179.97 Lakhs for FY 2025-26 as per the details mentioned below:

(In Lakhs)

Particulars	As per SLM	As per SLM
Depreciation	103.17	283.14
Perofit Before Tax	1,439.65	1,259.68

A change is considered preferred because SLM method will more accurately reflect the pattern of usage and the Expected benefits of such Assets and provide greater consistency with the depreciation method used by other Companies in the same Industry.

The Net book value of Assets acquired prior to 01/04/2025 with Useful life remaining will be depreciated using the SLM method prospectively.

The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

Estimated useful lives of items of property, plant and equipment:

Type of Assets	Estimated Useful Lives (In years)
Buildings	30 Years
Plant and Equipment	15 Years
Furniture and Fixtures	10 Years
Vehicles	8 Years
Office equipment	5 Years
Computers	4 Years

As we have taken 4 Years in Computers as per useful life. But, In Companies Act, 2013 Schedule II Life of Computers is 3 Years.

Intangible assets with finite lives are amortised over the useful economic life and assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired. The amortisation expense on intangible assets with finite lives is recognised in the Restated Summary Statement of Profit and Loss, unless such expenditure forms part of the carrying value of another asset.

The Company has used the following useful lives for amortisation of intangible assets:

Type of Asset	Estimated Useful Lives (In years)
Computer software	6 Years

The amortisation period and the amortisation method for an intangible asset with a finite useful life are reviewed at least at the end of each reporting period. Changes in the expected useful life or the expected pattern of consumption of future economic benefits embodied in the asset are considered to modify the amortisation period or method, as appropriate, and are treated as changes in accounting estimates.

2.08 Impairment of assets

At each balance sheet date, the management reviews the carrying amounts of its assets included in each cash generating unit to determine whether there is any indication that those assets were impaired. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of impairment. Recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's net selling price and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows expected from the continuing use of the asset and from its disposal are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects the current market assessments of time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. Reversal of impairment loss is recognised as income in the statement of profit and loss.

2.09 Leases

Assets taken on lease by the Company in its capacity as lessee, where the Company has substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are classified as finance lease. Such a lease is capitalised at the inception of the lease at lower of the fair value or the present value of the minimum lease payments and a liability is recognised for an equivalent amount. Each lease rental paid is allocated between the liability and the interest cost so as to obtain a constant periodic rate of interest on the outstanding liability for each year.

Lease arrangements where the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset substantially vest with the lessor, are recognised as operating leases. Lease rentals under operating leases are recognised in the statement of profit and loss on a straight-line basis.

2.10 Basis of Classification of Assets and Liabilities into current/non-current

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the Company's normal operating cycle, and other criteria set out in the Schedule III of the Companies Act, 2013. Based on the nature of products and the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realization in cash and cash equivalents, the Company has ascertained its operating cycle as up to twelve months for the purpose of current/non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

2.11 Borrowing Costs

Borrowing cost, if any, that is attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets is capitalized as part of such assets. The qualifying asset is an asset that necessarily takes substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use. All other borrowing cost is recognized as expenses in the period in which they are incurred.

2.12 Inventories

Raw materials are carried at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined on a weighted average basis. Purchased goods-in-transit are carried at cost. Work-in-progress is carried at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Stores and spare parts are carried at lower of cost and net realisable value. Revenue has been recognized as per AS-9 "Revenue Recognition".
Revenue is recognised when it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the Company and the amount of revenue can be measured reliably.

a Sale of Goods

Revenue from the sale of equipment is recognised upon transfer of the significant risks and rewards of ownership to the customer, which generally coincides with the delivery of goods and acceptance by the customer. Revenue is measured net of trade discounts, rebates, returns, and applicable taxes collected on behalf of the Government.

b Rendering of Services

Revenue from services is recognised as and when the services are rendered in accordance with the terms of the respective contracts or agreements, based on the stage of completion of the service or on completion of the service, as applicable.

c Interest Income

Interest income is recognised on a time proportion basis, taking into account the amount outstanding and the applicable interest rate.

2.14 Employee Benefits

a Post-employment benefit plans

Contributions to defined contribution retirement benefit schemes are recognised as expense when employees have rendered services entitling them to such benefits.

For defined benefit schemes, the cost of providing benefits is determined using the Projected Unit Credit Method, with actuarial valuations being carried out at each balance sheet date. Actuarial gains and losses are recognised in full in the statement of profit and loss for the period in which they occur. Past service cost is recognised immediately to the extent that the benefits are already vested, or amortised on a straight-line basis over the average period until the benefits become vested.

The retirement benefit obligation recognised in the balance sheet represents the present value of the defined benefit obligation as adjusted for unrecognised past service cost, and as reduced by the fair value of scheme assets. Any asset resulting from this calculation is limited to the present value of available refunds and reductions in future contributions to the scheme.

b Other employee benefits

The undiscounted amount of short-term employee benefits expected to be paid in exchange for the services rendered by employees is recognised during the period when the employee renders the service. These benefits include compensated absences such as paid annual leave, overseas social security contributions and performance incentives.

Compensated absences which are not expected to occur within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employee renders the related services are recognised as an actuarially determined liability at the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the balance sheet date.

Defined Benefits Plans

The Company's liability towards Gratuity of Employees of the company is provided for as per actuarial valuation carried out by an independent actuary as at the year end.

The Company's liability towards leave encashment is determined in accordance with its HR/Leave Encashment policy. As per the said policy, employees are entitled to encash accumulated leave based on the calendar year (January–December). The liability for leave encashment is recognized on an accrual basis in the financial statements. Short-term leave encashment benefits, expected to be settled wholly within twelve months, are accounted for at the undiscounted amount of the obligation. Long-term leave encashment benefits, if any, are valued based on actuarial assumptions, where applicable, in line with the requirements of Accounting Standard 15 / Ind AS 19 on Employee Benefits, as notified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013. The management regularly reviews the policy and estimates to ensure that the liability is appropriately measured and disclosed in the financial statements.

Deferred tax expense or benefit is recognised on timing differences being the difference between taxable income and accounting income that originate in one period and is likely to reverse in one or more subsequent periods. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date.

Advance tax paid is recognised under current tax assets and provision for current income tax is recognised under current tax liabilities. These balances are presented separately in the Balance Sheet and are not offset.

The Company offsets deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities if it has a legally enforceable right and these relate to taxes on income levied by the same governing taxation laws.

The Company has opted for taxation under Section 115BAB of the Income-tax Act, 1961. A provision is recognised when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past event and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which reliable estimate can be made. Provisions (excluding retirement benefits and compensated absences) are not discounted to its present value and are determined based on best estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. Contingent liabilities are not recognised in the financial statements. A contingent asset is neither recognised nor disclosed in the financial statements.

2.23 Policy for Contingencies and Events Occurring After the Balance Sheet Date

Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a present obligation arising from past events, the settlement of which is dependent on uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Company, or when a present obligation cannot be measured reliably. Contingent assets are not recognized in the financial statements but are disclosed when an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

The Company recognizes and adjusts material events occurring after the Balance Sheet date that provide additional evidence of conditions existing at the reporting date (adjusting events).

Non-adjusting events, which are indicative of conditions arising after the Balance Sheet date, are disclosed in the financial statements if they are material and could influence the economic decisions of users.

NOTES FORMING PART OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, AS RESTATED

Earning available for Debt Service = Net Profit before taxes + Non-cash operating expenses + Interest + other exceptional item
Debt service = Interest & Lease Payments + Principal Repayments
Capital Employed = Tangible Net Worth + Total Debt + Deferred Tax Liability
Cost of Goods Sold = Cost of Material Consumed + Purchases + Purchases + Changes in Inventories + Other Direct expenses

Reasons for Variances 31 March 2026

a	Current Ratio: Current liabilities grew faster (+69%) than current assets (+18%), largely due to higher short-term borrowings and trade payables raised to fund expanded operations.
b	Return on Equity (ROE): Average equity nearly doubled (+132%) on continued capital infusion, while PAT grew only ~29%, diluting the return despite absolute profit growth.
c	Inventory Turnover Ratio: The ratio declined due to a significant increase in inventory levels maintained during the year to support higher business operations and future order execution.
d	Trade Receivables Turnover Ratio: The decline is mainly due to higher credit sales and increased receivable balances outstanding at year-end, resulting in a higher average trade receivable base.
e	Return on Capital Employed (ROCE): The decrease in ROCE is due to substantial increase in capital employed resulting from higher net worth and borrowings, whereas EBIT did not increase proportionately.

Reasons for Variances 31 March 2025

a	Current Ratio: Current assets nearly tripled (+185%) on higher receivables, inventory and cash from fresh equity infusion, well ahead of the 60% rise in current liabilities.
b	Debt-Equity Ratio: Equity increased ~3.9x on a further capital infusion, outpacing the ~170% rise in debt.
c	Return on Equity (ROE): PAT nearly tripled (+190%), but average shareholder's equity grew faster still (+366%) due to fresh capital infusion, diluting the return.
d	Inventory Turnover Ratio: Average inventory rose ~5.9x (stock build-up for future order volumes) while turnover grew only ~2.1x.
e	Net Capital Turnover Ratio: Average working capital rose ~6.6x (higher receivables, inventory, equity-funded liquidity), far outpacing the ~2.1x rise in turnover.

Depreciation and Amortization Expenses

Depreciation for the Fiscal 2025 stood at ₹78.53 lakhs as against ₹52.93 lakhs during the Fiscal 2024, representing an increase of 48.37%. The increase was mainly due to the addition of new plant and machinery and other fixed assets capitalized during the year. This rise underscores the Company's continued investment in modernizing and expanding its production capacity, thereby enhancing efficiency and supporting long-term sustainable growth.

Other Expenses

Our Company has incurred ₹376.40 lakhs during the Fiscal 2025 on other expenses as against ₹168.54 lakhs during the Fiscal 2024. There was an increase of 123.33% mainly due to increase in Postage & Courier expenses on account of higher dispatch activity and enhanced documentation associated with growing export and domestic sales, reflecting the Company's expanding customer base and strengthened business volumes, increase in job work expenses due to increase in purchase order which leads to more outsourcing of manufacturing activities to support larger production volumes and timely fulfilment of orders, increase in professional fees mainly due to engagement of additional consultants, increase in travelling expenses (Domestic & Foreign) due to growing business development activities, client visits, and vendor/supplier evaluations, increase in Repairs & Maintenance of Machineries due to increased machine utilization in line with greater production volumes and increase in rent expense, electricity expense, office expense, marketing expense (Exhibitions, etc) and other expenses including Freight Inward, Insurance, Technical Testing, Printing & Stationery, Security Charges, etc.

Restated Profit before tax:

Our profit before tax for the Fiscal 2025 increased by 189.01% from ₹382.55 lakhs in the Fiscal 2024 to net profit of 1105.60 lakhs in Fiscal 2025. Consequently, our PBT Margin expanded to 50.03% in Fiscal 2025 (Fiscal 2024: 36.28%). The main reason for increase in PBT margin is due to various factors as under:

Restated profit after tax:

As a result of the above factors, our profit after tax increased by 190.24% from ₹316.14 lakhs in Fiscal 2024 to ₹917.57 lakhs in Fiscal 2025. Consequently, our PAT margin expanded to 41.52% in Fiscal 2025 from 29.98% in the Fiscal 2024.

Across the last three fiscals, growth in revenue and PAT margins has been driven by consistent quality and on-time delivery (customer retention and repeat business), a rising refurbishing contribution (material-efficient), and process/overhead discipline, together yielding stronger operating leverage and profitability.

Key drivers of the Profit expansion:

Scale-up in Revenue from operations: The increase in revenue that, ultimately cause to higher profit volume, is attributed to higher customer satisfaction, driven by the company's consistent delivery of quality products on time. This has resulted in a growing customer base and, consequently, higher sales and rise in PBT Revenue from operations rose from ₹1,054.33 lakhs (Fiscal 2024) to ₹2,209.98 lakhs (Fiscal 2025), on the back of stronger demand and timely delivery performance.

Higher refurbishing Die plates: company's increased focus on refurbishing machinery parts starting. Refurbishing requires less material compared to manufacturing new parts, which has led to improved cost efficiency and Gross Contribution towards Profit.

Improved product/service mix: Higher contribution from die head plates, blades/blade holders, supported by limited trading and consulting/export-commission activities.

Operating leverage and cost control: Several fixed and semi-variable cost lines (e.g., employee benefits, certain other expenses) did not rise in proportion to revenue and process discipline.

Other income support: Growth in export incentives and forex gain supplemented operating profitability.

An analysis of reasons for the changes in significant items of income and expenditure is given hereunder:

1. Unusual or infrequent events or transactions –

   Our business has not experienced any unusual or infrequent events during the reporting periods that materially affected our operations. However, events such as global supply chain disruptions, fluctuations in raw material availability/prices, and volatility in foreign exchange rates could impact our future financial performance.

2. Significant economic changes that materially affect or are likely to affect income from continuing operations.

   Our business has been subject to, and we expect it to continue to be subject to significant economic changes arising from the trends identified above in "Factors Affecting our Results of Operations" and the uncertainties described in the chapter titled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 20 of this Red Herring Prospectus. To our knowledge, except as we have described in this Red Herring Prospectus, there are no known factors which we expect to bring about significant economic changes.

3. Known trends or uncertainties that have had or are expected to have a material adverse impact on sales, revenue or income from continuing operations.

   Apart from the risks as disclosed under chapter titled "Risk Factors" beginning on Page 20 of the Red Herring Prospectus, in our opinion there are no other known trends or uncertainties that have had or are expected to have a material adverse impact on revenue or income from continuing operations.

4. Future changes in the relationship between costs and revenues

   Other than as described in the chapter titled "Risk Factors", "Business Overview" and "Management Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" on Pages 20,158 and 244 respectively, to our knowledge, no future relationship between expenditure and income is expected to have a material adverse impact on our operations and finances.

5. Segment Reporting

Our company operates in a single segment. For details, please refer to chapter titled "Restated Financial Information" on Page 242 of the Red Herring Prospectus.

6. Status of any publicly announced New Products or Business Segment

   Except as disclosed in the Chapter titled "Business Overview" on page 158, our Company has not announced any new product or service beyond our core portfolio.

7. Seasonality of business

   Our business is not subject to seasonality. Orders are linked to production cycles of our customers operating in polyolefins, recycling solutions, polymer processing and etc. industries, which are generally consistent throughout the year. For further information, see "Industry Overview" and "Business Overview" on Pages 138 and 158, respectively.

8. Dependence on single or few customers

   While we maintain long-term relationships with key customers, our business is not dependent on a single customer or a few customers alone. We serve a diverse base of domestic and international clients across more than 25 countries, reducing concentration risk. However, loss of a large customer or significant reduction in orders from key export destinations could adversely affect our results.

9. Competitive conditions

   We operate in a competitive global market for pelletizing system components, facing competition from both domestic and international manufacturers. Competitive factors include quality, technical innovation, reliability, pricing, and service support. We believe our emphasis on simulation-driven design, refurbishment solutions, and customer-centric service provides us with a competitive edge.

PHASED IMPLEMENTATION OF UNIFIED PAYMENTS INTERFACE

SEBI has issued UPI Circulars in relation to streamlining the process of public issue of equity shares and convertibles. Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, UPI has been introduced in a phased manner as a payment mechanism (in addition to mechanism of blocking funds in the account maintained with SCSBs under the ASBA) for applications by Individual Investors through intermediaries with the objective to reduce the time duration from public issue closure to listing from six Working Days to upto three Working Days. Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI Mechanism, the UPI Circulars proposes to introduce and implement the UPI Mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

Phase I: This phase is applicable from January 1, 2019 and will continue up to June 30, 2019. Under this phase, a Individual Investor would also have the option to submit the Application Form with any of the intermediary and use his / her UPI ID for the purpose of blocking of funds. The time duration from public Issue closure to listing would continue to be six Working Days.

Phase II: This phase commenced on completion of Phase I, i.e., with effect from July 1, 2019 and was to be continued for a period of three months or launch of five main board public issues, whichever is later. Further, as per the SEBI circular No. SEBI/HO/CFD/DCR2/CIR/P/2019/133 dated November 8, 2019, the UPI Phase II has been extended until March 31, 2020. Further still, as per SEBI circular No. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2020/50 dated March 30, 2020, the current Phase II of Unified Payments Interface with Application Supported by Blocked Amount will be continued till further notice. Under this phase, submission of the Application Form by a Individual Investor through intermediaries to SCSBs for blocking of funds will be discontinued and will be replaced by the UPI Mechanism. However, the time duration from public Issue closure to listing would continue to be six Working Days during this phase.

Phase III: The commencement period of Phase III is notified pursuant to SEBI press release bearing number 12/2023 and as per the SEBI Circular No. SEBI/HO/CFD/TPD1/CIR/P/2023/140 dated August 09, 2023, where the revised timeline of T+3 days shall be made applicable in two phases i.e. (i) voluntary for all public issues opening on or after September 01, 2023; and (ii) mandatory on or after December 01, 2023. The issue will be made under UPI Phase III of the UPI Circulars.

The processing fees for applications made by UPI Bidders using the UPI Mechanism may be released to the SCSBs only after such banks provide a written confirmation, in compliance with the SEBI RTA Master Circular in a format as prescribed by SEBI, from time to time, and such payment of processing fees to the SCSBs shall be made in compliance with circulars prescribed by SEBI and applicable law. Accordingly, the Issue has been undertaken pursuant to the processes and procedures under UPI Phase III, subject to any circulars, clarification or notification issued by the SEBI pursuant to the T+3 Notification. The Issue will be advertised in all editions of Financial Express (a widely circulated English national daily newspaper), all and editions of Jansatta (a widely circulated Hindi national daily newspaper), and in all editions of Financial Express (a widely circulated Regional language daily newspaper) (Gujarati being the regional language of Vadodara, where our Registered Office is located), on or prior to the Bid/Offer Opening Date and such advertisement has also been made available to the Stock Exchange for the purpose of uploading on their websites.

All SCSBs offering the facility of making applications in public issues are required to provide a facility to make applications using the UPI Mechanism. Further, in accordance with the UPI Circulars, our Company has appointed Kotak Bank Limited as the Sponsor Bank to act as a conduit between the Stock Exchange and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and / or payment instructions of the Individual Investors into the UPI mechanism.

Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, SEBI has set out specific requirements for redressal of investor grievances for applications that have been made through the UPI Mechanism. The requirements of the UPI Circulars include appointment of a nodal officer by the SCSB and submission of their details to SEBI, the requirement for SCSBs to send SMS alerts for the blocking and unblocking of UPI mandates, the requirement for the Registrar to submit details of cancelled, withdrawn or deleted applications, and the requirement for the bank accounts of unsuccessful applicants to be unblocked no later than one day from the date on which the Basis of Allotment is finalised. Failure to unblock the accounts within the timeline would result in the SCSBs being penalised under the relevant securities law. Additionally, if there is any delay in the redressal of investors' complaints, the relevant SCSB as well as the Book Running Lead Manager will be required to compensate the concerned investor.

SEBI through its circular SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2022/45 dated April 05, 2022, has prescribed that all individual investors applying in initial public offerings opening on or after May 01, 2022, where the application amount is up to ₹5,00,000, shall use UPI. While the Industrial Policy, 1991 prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made.
